Crowd Gathers But Francine Fails To Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Francine Gottfried, the most popular IBM machine operator on Wall Street, disappointed an estimated 15,000 men Friday. She didn't show up for work.

The crowd, up from a mere traffic-jamming 5,000 who turned out Thursday, began gathering as early as 9 a.m. spurred by news reports of the sensation caused by the super-shapely brunette's daily stroll to work.

But Miss Gottfried, 21, who's 5-foot-4 and measures 43-25-37, was home in Brooklyn. "We gave her the day off and she'll be off Monday and Tuesday, too," said a spokesman for the bank where she works.

Reports of the spectacular appearance of Miss Gottfried, who usually emerges from the Broad Street subway exit at 1:28 p.m. on her way to report for the afternoon shift, had circulated through the district for two weeks.

Clerks and bankers, brokers and errand boys had been arranging their lunch hours so they would be free to see Miss Gottfried, who favors tight-fitting sweaters and blouses and walks briskly to her job.

"It's all crazy," she commented again Friday. "These people have all the responsibility of handling millions of dollars and they act like they're out of their minds."

By not going to work, she missed the sight of a building-to-building crowd of girl watchers and a banner which someone hung out saying "We Love You."

Police said four car roofs crumpled from the weight of excited spectators who climbed atop for a better view.

Meanwhile the bank said Miss Gottfried would not lose her job over the commotion. But she said her employers "say I must try to find another way to get to work without using that subway station."

Trains Collide: Kill Fifty Indonesians

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Two overcrowded passenger trains collided head-on at high speed Friday near a tiny jungle village 35 miles south of Jakarta and 50 Indonesians were reported killed. The number of injured was placed above 100.

Some officials expressed fear the death toll would go as high as 80 since many persons were trapped in the wreckage. It was Indonesia's worst rail disaster in two decades.

Weather

ESCANABA AND VICINITY: Mostly sunny and warmer to day. High in the mid-70s with southwest to south winds, 7 to 17 mph. Fair tonight, low in the 50s. Sunday, increasing cloudiness and warm, with chance of late afternoon showers or thundershowers. Monday outlook: showers of rain likely, turning cooler. Precipitation probability: Sunday, 30%.

Upper Peninsula — Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Sunday. A little warmer this afternoon with highs 68 to 76. Lows tonight in the 50s and highs Sunday in the 70s. ## Heart Patient Is 'Much Improved'

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's first heart transplant recipient had a good night's sleep and remains in fair condition, a spokesman for the University of Michigan Hospital said today.

The patient, Philip T. Barnum, 49, of Kalamazoo, was reported to be showing a good pulse beat and pressure, and the heart is functioning entirely on its own. Barnum remains on intravenous feeding and was not yet allowed to get out of bed, however, and is receiving daily intramuscular shots of Immuran and steroids.

Barnum received the heart of a Southern Michigan Prison convict in an operation that took five hours and 28 minutes to complete Thursday night and Friday morning.

In a briefing for newsmen this morning, the hospital spokesman said that there had been no repeat of the incident of cardiac arrest that occurred shortly after the operation ended Friday.

Barnum remained isolated and under around-the-clock guard to prevent his being disturbed, the spokesman said, adding:

"He is conscious, alert and communicative. The family is in good spirits and... only the immediate family and hospital personnel involved have been in the vicinity of his room."

"The family has visited the patient one or two at a time." Mrs. Aileen Barnum had been near her husband at the hospital and visited with him Friday evening for the first time since the transplant. She said later she was encouraged by his progress.

Hospital officials withheld the name of the donor, saying they were complying with the wishes of his family.

Relatives, however, named 38-year-old Herman Opdenhof of Pontiac, an inmate of Southern Michigan Prison, as the donor.

Dr. Roger Nelson, senior associate director at the hospital said at 11:30 a.m., six hours after the operation, that "there were no rejections signs evident at the moment." He said blood pressure and other bodily functions were normal. "The way things went during the operation it would have appeared that we had done many of them—it went so smoothly," Nelson said.

The surgical team consisted of 12 physicians, six nurses and four technicians. According to previous hospital policy, team members were not identified. Nelson observed but did not take part in the operation. According to one source, however, Dr. Ronald R. Kahn was chief surgeon in the operation. An associate professor of Philip T. Barnum heart and lung surgery at the university's medical school Kahn had been Barnum's doctor since he was admitted Aug. 8.

Prison Inmate Is Heart Donor

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The donor of the heart now beating in 49-year-old Philip Barnum of Kalamazoo was 38-year-old Herman Opdenhof of Pontiac, an inmate of Southern Michigan prison.

According to his brother-in-law, Arthur Allen, Opdenhof went into surgery in a last-ditch effort to save him from dying of a brain hemorrhage. Allen says, just before the operation, Opdenhof told him "if things don't go right in the operation, I want to do some good. The hospital can take anything they want."

Opdenhof, who served time at Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson for robbery, suffered a stroke about one month ago. He later suffered a massive brain hemorrhage and hope for his survival was abandoned late Thursday night. Doctors said Opdenhof died at 12:45 a.m. Friday about one hour after a 22-member team began operating on Barnum. The transplant was made at 3:02 a.m. and the operation was completed at 5:15 a.m.

Allen says Opdenhof's eyes and brain were also removed. Allen says Opdenhof was taken from the prison to the hospital because he was suffering severe headaches, which eventually caused a rupturing of blood vessels in the brain and led to his death.

Marines Sweep DMZ In Drive To Plug Trails

SAIGON (AP) — A task force of 2,000 U.S. Marines swept through the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam today in a drive to seize the enemy's weapons stockpiles and destroy its infiltration trails.

Heavy fighting also raged near the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon where government troops holding an embattled outpost reported killing 173 enemy.

Helicopters carried the Marine assault troops into the DMZ Tuesday, but the U.S. Command placed an embargo on news about the operation until word leaked out today.

Two Marines Killed In five days of maneuvering, the Leathernecks reported killing 74 North Vietnamese regulars while suffering two dead and 10 wounded.

It is reported the first time an allied force has entered the DMZ's central sector. American and South Vietnamese forces have made five major forays into the zone's eastern flank over the last 16 months, including one last Friday.

The zone, which extends three miles on each side of the North-South Vietnamese border, is supposed to be neutral territory but enemy troops have fortifications and gun positions there.

Allied forces have stayed out of the zone's northern half, but U.S. Air Force B52 bombers have unloaded tons of explosives there and over the extreme southern fringe of North Vietnam in an attempt to silence the big enemy guns that could be used against the Marines. Field reports said the enemy's heavy artillery had failed to pinpoint the Leathernecks' sweeps.

Destroy Supplies

Headquarters said the operation had two aims, to destroy hidden war supplies and to disrupt a newly discovered network of "speed trails" enabling North Vietnamese to move swiftly through the DMZ to Marine outposts. A Marine spokesman described the "speed trails" as cleared paths fitted with steps and hand rails at difficult spots.

The Marines reported killing 25 North Vietnamese troops on the first day of the DMZ operation and have since had only scattered contacts in the heavily jungled terrain.

In several instances, food and ammunition were dropped to the U.S. troops by parachute, but there have been no jumps into combat.

Will Remain In Public Service, Says Romney

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney said Friday that whatever the future holds for him he intends to remain in public life. After a speech at Sacramento's Comstock Club, to a business group, Romney was asked whether Richard M. Nixon had offered him a post in his administration if the Republican candidate was elected president.

"He hasn't said anything to me privately anything that he hasn't said publicly... he indicated to the press that any administration would be glad to have me... but he and I have never discussed anything of a specific character," Romney said.

He added: "The only decision I've made with respect to my future is that I'm going to remain in public service."

Romney, president of American Motors before he entered politics, was a GOP presidential candidate but withdrew.

In his speech, the governor took swats at management and labor for "escalating inflation" in the American economy, then singled out labor in the exercise of "raw power."

He urged a redistribution of economic power to restore American economic incentives, saying:

"The greatest economic rewards must go to those who make the greatest economic contribution - to those who are most highly organized."

"This is a serious problem when a plumber's helper, a kid just out of high school, gets to earn more than a teacher or a policeman..."

Romney again called for a guarantee of neutralization of Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos by the United States and Russia.

Kidnaped Boy Is Home Safe; FBI Nabs Trio

OAK BROOK, Ill. (AP) — Today the frightening experience of being kidnaped and held for $125,000 ransom was all behind Hillard Marks, 7, the grandson of a millionaire.

He was in his own home, with his family, and with the birthday presents—a watch from his grandmother, a football, books and games—which he should have had Thursday while he was held hostage.

The boy's parents, William and Mary Lou Marks, first learned that he was gone at 4:05 p.m. Wednesday. Their long anguished wait ended about 36 hours later when they were reunited with him in an FBI office.

He was retrieved unharmed and without payment of ransom, from a home in Riverdale, a suburb south of Chicago. FBI agents surrounded the house and seized Robert S. Marin, 24, and his wife, Elhel, 26. Later, agents arrested Daniel Pieler, 30, a former service station owner who knew the Marks family.

Pieler and the Marins were charged with aggravated kidnaping and held in the Cook County jail. The FBI said they would be prosecuted in Illinois courts. Illinois penalties for kidnaping range from two years in prison to death.

Hillard is the grandson of Hillard W. Marks, founder of the Perfect Plus Hosiery Co. The boy's father is president of Century Fabricators Co., a firm on Chicago's South Side near the service station formerly owned by Pieler.

The Marks have two other children, Judith, 15, and Barry, 4.

Hillard was abducted just after he jumped off the bus returning home from Monroe Elementary School in nearby Hinsdale, another upper-class suburb west of Chicago.

Salazar Remains In Grave Danger

LISBON (AP) — A medical bulletin reported alterations in the grave condition of Prime Minister Antonio de Oliveira Salazar during the night but said the alterations had been corrected, "as of this moment."

The bulletin was taken to mean the Portuguese leader had taken a turn for the worse at one point. The bulletin said his condition this morning was stationary.

Poet Laureate

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Paul Scott Mowrer, a Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter and former war correspondent, has been nominated to be New Hampshire's first poet laureate. Mowrer, who won the Pulitzer in 1929, has written 11 books of poetry, a play and three books of prose. He resides in Concord.

The 1967 legislature created the honorary nonpaying, lifetime job.

Czech Liberals Seek For Backing In Kremlin Talks

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's liberal leaders continued their visit to the provinces today, hopeful that the cheers they draw demonstrate a national solidarity that will give them a bargaining wedge in upcoming talks with the Kremlin.

Their visit today to Ostrava, a city of 250,000 in the coal, iron and steel region of Czech Silesia, followed a triumphant visit Friday to the international industrial fair at Brno, Czechoslovakia's second largest city.

Cheered By Crowds President Ludvik Svoboda, reformist Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek, Premier Oldrich Cernik, National Assembly President Joseph Smrkovsky and Slovak Communist party leader Gustav Husak were cheered by thousands in the streets of Brno and at the fair.

Dubcek and Cernik appear today at a workers' mass meeting at Ostrava.

Nixon Makes Bid For Negro Votes

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Richard M. Nixon scouts the city and the suburbs for votes today after declaring that as president, he would not accept a Vietnam settlement to bring home U.S. troops at the risk that "their 14-and 15-year-old brothers will have to fight another war."

He plans a stop at a shopping center in the Negro section of Philadelphia to open a 14-hour day of campaign rallies, and said he seeks the votes of all Americans.

In a statewide television broadcast Friday night, Nixon denied he has written off the Negro vote in his bid for the White House.

Must Unite Nation

"Whoever is going to be president of this country has got to be president of the whole country," Nixon said. "He must be able to unite this country and therefore his appeal must be to all segments of the country."

The Republican nominee said any candidate who ignored Negro voters and appealed only to white Americans would not be able to govern as president because he would have "basically a civil war on his hands between the black and the white community."

Nixon said even if he does not win Negro support, it is important that he seek it for "I hope that after this election, I'll have the confidence of the black people as well as the white people."

Dealing with Vietnam, Nixon said he opposed coalition government as the price of a peace settlement.

"We do not want to lose at the conference table what 200,000 American casualties have already paid for in Vietnam," he said.

May Try Again

He did so, after Jack McKinney, a Democrat, and a member of the panel which questioned him on the campaign television show, suggested that the GOP nominee has been seeking votes with "a wink and a smile," but with no detailed discussion of the war.

"Now Mr. McKinney, just a minute, maybe you haven't been reading what I have said about Vietnam," Nixon said.

"If we impose by negotiation a coalition government with Communists in the government of South Vietnam, that will be an encouragement not only to the North Vietnamese, but to the Communist Chinese and the Soviet Union to try it again," Nixon said.

Motion Stated

The motion by Trustee Ralph S. Kaziatek and seconded by Charles L. Tooman, both previously opposed to immediate resumption of transportation, was:

"In view of the fact that this Board of Education was found to be legal in its previous action of Aug. 19, 1968, along with the fact that Judge Davidson stated that the law was also stretched quite thin, I move that we immediately reinstate the cuts of Aug. 19, 1968. Also, in the event that the Nov. 5, 1968, millage election is defeated, this board understands that in order to pay the bills, monies will be borrowed against the 1969-70 tax allocated monies to pay the 1968-69 operational budget."

More Elections?

The Board also unanimously agreed that should "the subsequent millage elections fail the board's only choice will be not to open the schools in the fall of 1969."

The statement regarding "subsequent millage elections" and restoration of cutback programs was made in a news release issued by the Board of Education today. Members of the news media did not attend the meeting Friday after be-

Board Moves Unanimously After Hearing

By DAVE ANDREWS Buses in the Escanaba Area school district will run again, hopefully next week.

Action restoring transportation and "as many of the other previously announced cuts as possible" to the school program was taken by the Board of Education late Friday afternoon after the school district "won" a split decision in Circuit Court at Marquette.

Judge Bernard H. Davidson, ruling on a suit to compel the school board to restore student transportation through a Writ of Mandamus, said that under Michigan law he could not "command" the board to resume transportation, but strongly urged that they do so. "The Board of Education ought to do everything they can to provide transportation for students," the judge said.

Need Drivers

Supt. of Schools Luther M. Barrett said today that the district hopes to have buses "on the road" by Wednesday morning.

Barrett and Lawrence Klug, director of transportation, pointed out, however, that the exact starting date of bus service will depend on the "availability of drivers."

The district normally operates with a staff of 15 regular drivers, plus several substitutes, but Klug said that some of the drivers took other jobs with discontinuation of the bus program this fall.

Efforts to get school buses moving already were underway this morning as Barrett said the district hopes to work throughout the weekend in servicing the district's fleet.

The superintendent also said that because of the question on availability of drivers, the district would welcome applications from persons interested in employment as bus drivers.

Attendance Urged

He also urged parents who have been withholding children from school because of the transportation program to make "every effort" to get children to school, on their own as soon as possible for registration purposes.

Friday, Sept. 27, is the date set by the State of Michigan for an enrollment count to determine state aid for the 1968-69 school year. Only those students properly registered for classes can be included in the count.

The Board of Education, in taking its action to restore transportation and other cutbacks, apparently was influenced by both Davidson's language and also legal interpretations of "deficit financing" by Thomas Nordberg.

Nordberg, son of former Escanaba High School football coach Carl Nordberg, is with the F. M. Thrun legal firm of Lansing and represented the Board of Education in the court action Friday.

Snow And Cold Hit In Rockies

By The Associated Press

A wintry storm packing wind-blown snow, cold rain and freezing temperatures laced the northern and central Rockies today—the last full day of summer.

Six to 10 inches of snow covered some mountain sections of Montana and Idaho. Temperatures tumbled into the 20s and 30s.

Warnings to stockmen and travelers were in effect for portions of central and western Montana and western Wyoming. Hazardous driving warnings included parts of Idaho and Utah as well.

Highway crews attempting to keep mountain passes open were hampered by limited visibility. Snow-bearing winds up to 40 miles an hour frustrated their efforts. The Going to the Sun road in Glacier National Park in northern Montana was closed by drifting snow. Park maintenance workers hoped to have it open by Sunday.

Seek Cause For Pigeon Deaths

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pigeons fell dead by the dozens Thursday in Pershing Square. Nobody knew why.

Leslie Sedberry, senior gardener in the downtown park, collected 50 dead pigeons and 7 sparrows. "I think someone came with some poisoned bread or poisoned grain," he said.

Police were investigating.

Lake Shore Inc. $600,000 Growth Plan Welcomed

By RAY CRANDALL
Of Panax Newspaper

Decision of Lake Shore, Inc., to regroup and reform its industrial operations with a $600,000 building program in Kingsford indicates a sound economic future for the community and the Upper Peninsula.

Lake Shore has a business philosophy of continuous growth in the Upper Peninsula, and the new facilities, financed by industrial revenue bonds issued by the City of Kingsford, guarantee perpetuity here.

Lake Shore's new facilities will consolidate the firm's operations, now scattered in various locations. In addition to an increase in company efficiency, the building program will accomplish two things of vital importance to the region:

1. Upgrading of facilities at Lake Shore—and Grede Foundries which will move into the vacated offices—will provide room for more employees in business expansion.
2. Investment in new properties means an immediately larger tax base.

Lake Shore is somewhat unique as a producer of heavy equipment in the Upper Peninsula. Manufacture of most products of the size turned out by Lake Shore is closer to market. Transportation costs are a fact of life that dictate a close relationship between manufacturer and consumer.

What keeps Lake Shore—with a multi-million dollar annual contribution to the area economy—in the Upper Peninsula and Kingsford?

The people who make Lake Shore's high level decisions believe this is a good place to live and work, in spite of travel and recruiting difficulties. And they are finding it increasingly easy to convince key personnel of that fact. Lake Shore is a pioneer in the trend of industry away from cities to suburban and rural areas.

With over 100 years of operation in the Upper Peninsula, it is obvious that Lake Shore is here to stay. The current expansion program is a reflection of the firm's executive thinking in terms of growth and permanency.

A company like Lake Shore carries impressive credentials on an international scale. It has plants in Minnesota, Canada, Arizona and New York in addition to Kingsford and Marquette. Sales offices are scattered in New York, Cleveland, Detroit, Denver, San Francisco, Salt Lake City,

MEA To Honor Rep. Varnum

Rep. Charles Varnum (R-Manistique) will be honored as "a friend of education" at a dinner program to be held in Escanaba on Oct. 3, it was announced today by the Michigan Education Association's Political Action Committee.

The family style dinner will be served in the Central Methodist Church at 5:30 p. m., and the speaker will be Dick Adams, Lansing, legislative chairman of the MEA.

Rep. Varnum was selected for recognition by a non-partisan group in recognition of his assistance in education in Michigan, it was announced.

Tickets for the dinner program will be available at any school, at a booth at the upcoming MEA convention to be held in Escanaba, and at the door.

Horowitz's Piano Concert On TV

NEW YORK (AP) — Vladimir Horowitz will play a piano recital on network television Sunday night, so that people who've been bombarded by traffic noises and modern pop-rock that sounds like traffic noises can enjoy a different kind of sound.

His concert will be his first performance on film and his first piano recital on network television—47 minutes of uninterrupted music, with commercials at the beginning and end of the hour. But Horowitz, one of the world's greatest pianists, is less interested in these firsts than he is in the key word "enjoy."

Man, 20, Drowns Retrieving Line

ADRIAN (AP) — An orchard laborer from Arkansas was drowned when he jumped into the River Raisin near Blissfield Friday to retrieve a bobber and line broken off from a rod by a struggling fish, police reported.

Authorities said that Joe King, 22, of West Memphis, Ark., was drowned in seven feet of water. His body was recovered by firemen a half-hour later.

He was sitting on a river bank, when a companion hooked a fish. In trying to land it, the line snapped.

King's death was ruled accidental by the county coroner.

Candidates Visit

DETROIT (AP) — Republican presidential candidate Richard Nixon and the Democratic vice presidential nominee, Maine Sen. Edmund Muskie, are both scheduled to visit Michigan this month.

GOP sources said Nixon will attend what was described as a "major meeting" the next day with Gov. George Romney and state and city leaders from around the country.

A Democratic source disclosed that Muskie tentatively is slated to visit Hamtramck and Warren Sept. 25.

Woman Is Cantor In Florida Temple

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Rita Shore, 26, a Miami mother of two girls, will be the cantor for the high holy days beginning Sunday night in Temple Judea, Coral Gables.

Women for thousands of years were segregated in Jewish temples. Only in recent years have they been given equal representation with men in some cases.

"She's a natural," said Rabbi Morris A. Kipper. "Frankly, I have never heard any cantor give the rendition of the classical liturgical works that Rita does."

The congregation has been without a cantor, and after the New Year holy days will vote on making Mrs. Shore the regular cantor.

College Tests Cable Teaching

Bay de Noc Community College on Friday conducted a series of experimental tests with the aim of producing local programs that could be seen over Channel 4 of the American Cablevision System.

Purpose of the tests was to find out what technical problems have to be overcome before actual programs could be produced. Five proposed programs were tested.

Included were an in depth analysis of a "News Story of the Week" featuring a local news personality. Another proposed program in "Local Sports Highlight," to focus on sports activities of local high school teams. The third program, "College is for Students," will take the viewer into college life.

"At Home With the Arts" is an attempt to teach a college course via television. The program was conducted by Mrs. Alice Powers, art instructor for the college. "What's Happening on the Log," gives the viewer a chance to witness a member of the college faculty and his students in a class discussion.

Dr. Richard L. Rinehart, president of Bay de Noc Community College, said that further tests and evaluations are planned to eliminate lighting and audio problems discovered in Friday's tests. He also said that the college was considering programs in the television area as a community service and lauded the cooperation of Jack D. Bradshaw, American Cablevision in providing facilities, and the interest shown by the coaches, newsmen, students and college faculty. "I believe that Bay de Noc Community College can make this work to the advantage of the whole community" said Dr. Rinehart.

The test programs featuring Dick Foster, program advisor of WLST talking about water pollution on "News Story of the Week;" Jerry Cventgors, head football coach of the Escanaba Senior High; Tom O'Neil, football coach of Holy Name; and Jim Henderson, athletic director of Bay de Noc Community College, in "Local Sports Highlights."

"College is for Students" presented a live, meeting of the Bay de Noc College student government. Howard Erickson, physics instructor at the college, held a discussion with three students in "What's Happening on the Log." An art class at the college was conducted by Mrs. Alice Powers, with the students watching the instructor over a television monitor in "At Home with the Arts."

Pay Lid Spawns Riot In Uruguay

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Authorities feared further rioting as students prepared for the funeral of a student killed Friday in a third straight night of violent protests over wage and price freeze policies.

The seven-hour wave of violence in which economics student Hugo de los Santos, 18, was fatally shot, was described as one of the worst in the capital in the past three months of disturbances.

It was feared his funeral could trigger further outbreaks. Although there was no accurate casualty toll available, six other persons were reported seriously injured Friday night and scores suffered lesser injuries. About 50 persons were arrested.

At the height of the fighting, students hurled stones from behind barricades as police battled with tear gas and rifles.

There were clashes both outside Montevideo University and in the district of El Cerro, 10 miles outside the capital, scene of a month-long strike by meat packing workers. Details from that area were sketchy.

In rioting Wednesday and Thursday, at least 47 persons were known wounded.

President Jorge Pacheco Areco, who is trying to get Congress to ratify his order freezing wages and prices at June 26 levels, met with top advisers in Government House Friday night.

The president asked university authorities to use their influence to halt the violence.

Pacheco Areco leaves today for the city of Salto on the Argentine border, to meet with Argentine President Juan Carlos Onganía for top level talks Sunday.

Argentina is said to be worried about the steadily deteriorating economic situation and the disturbances in Uruguay.

The government tightened censorship over local news reports of the rioting. The censorship prohibits the mention of disturbances and casualties.

Coeds Defeat Coho Jinx At Thompson Beach

Persistence paid off for a pair of Manistique young women who fished for coho salmon in Thompson Bay.

Rebecca Johnson and Karen Larson fished there for 19 consecutive days without catching a single fish. Salmon struck their lures and broke their poles and lines but they couldn't land any of them.

Then, on the 20th day, Miss Larson caught a large salmon and Miss Johnson caught a limit of three and released several others.

Miss Johnson is a junior at Northern Michigan University. Her fishing partner is a junior at Central Michigan University.

Italy Gets Back In Step With Tiny Farming Village

ROME (AP) — Every city and village in Italy will change pace at midnight tonight to get back in step with little Trepalle, an Alpine dairy farming town which lives by the sun and not by the clock.

For every other community in this country midnight will strike twice as clocks are set back an hour to end daylight saving time which started at midnight last May 25.

But the stubborn folk of Trepalle, Italy's highest year-round inhabited town, 7,200 feet up in the mountains near the Swiss frontier, unanimously refused to set their clocks ahead in the first place.

They lived one hour off-beat for four months waiting for the rest of the country to come back to their time.

One of the 600 townsmen explained it this way: "About all anybody does up here is to raise dairy cattle. And as long as the cows go by the sun and not by the clock, we have to do the same."

FOURTH GENERATION of business proprietorship in Spalding is represented by Leo Labre and his wife Joyce, proprietors of the new Labre's Foodliner. Mrs. Labre is the former Joyce Corrigan. (Lynn Bellefeuil Photos)

Open New Foodliner

By LYNN BELLEFEUIL
SPALDING—If red carpet service is what you long for, drive to the new Labre's Foodliner in Spalding, where the red carpet is rolled out every day.

The attractive paneled interior, completely finished by proprietor Leo Labre and his father Phil, reflects an atmosphere of warmth even on the gloomiest days. Bright orange uniforms provide splashes of color designed to put the grocery shopper in a cheerful mood. Complete food service including custom cutting of meats, plus an array of housewares is offered.

Labre's Foodliner opened for business on Sept. 10, and represents the establishment of the fourth generation of Labres in proprietorship in Spalding. The modern building, completely carpeted in bright red, is a dramatic contrast to the original Labre establishment erected in 1901. The tall narrow building was originally a saloon—no women allowed.

Instead of the bright and airy atmosphere of a modern supermarket, proprietor Xavier Labre ran his business successfully in a dim but cozy setting. The only splashes of color were risqué calendars and the customary spittoons.

Far from encouraging female patrons as his great-grandson is now doing with intonements of red carpets and efficient service, Xavier managed polite toleration within the customs of the day. For a woman to obtain beer, she had to go to the back door with her empty lard pail and wait meekly outside while it was being filled.

During the "dry years" Xavier's son, Francis, converted the business into a general store. His son Philip took over in 1944, and he and wife Arline carried on the tradition until 1967 when Leo and wife Joyce bought the business.

Leo received his start in the business world at the ripe old age of seven when he took over part of his older brother John's Escanaba Daily Press Route. Expanding his route and later inheriting John's list of subscribers was valuable business experience.

Now, after less than a year in the new business, he has expanded the facilities to enable him to deal in larger volume and better service. Not yet content, Leo hopes to build a storage building adjacent to the Foodliner in 1969 and expand his cooler and meat packaging area.

Billy Graham Is Rainbow Golfer

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham wore orange slacks, a green shirt and yellow shoes for a round of golf with friends this week.

Graham said the yellow shoes had been admired by President Johnson recently.

"The next time I was in New York, I bought a pair of them in Mr. Johnson's size in every color available—six, I think—and sent them to him," Graham said.

Graham, a Charlotte native, is being honored by his hometown with a "Billy Graham Appreciation Day."

Premier Salazar Condition Grave

LISBON (AP)—Antonio de Oliveira Salazar remained in grave condition today, and political sources reported he will be replaced as prime minister unless there is marked improvement in his condition soon.

The sources said President Americo Thomaz and the Cabinet had agreed to name a successor to curb nervousness in official circles and among the people over the 79-year-old leader's prolonged illness.

The reports said an announcement was expected later today or Saturday.

Bay de Noc Community College reported today that its Nov. 5 ballot for the election of three trustees will bear the

Griffin Denies Anti-Semitism

WASHINGTON (AP)—A leader in the fight to block Abe Fortas' nomination as chief justice says the White House is trying to make it seem as though opposition is based on anti-Semitism.

"The White House, indirectly and directly, is trying to stir this up and make it a big issue, even though there is no basis for it," Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., told newsmen Friday.

"I think it's emanating right from the White House," he said. "It's flopped and backfired on them, but they are still trying."

There was no immediate comment from the White House which Griffin has accused in the past of bringing extraordinary pressure to bear in Fortas' behalf.

As Griffin got in some final licks against the nomination before debate starts next week, Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., put out a speech defending Fortas, who would become the first Jewish chief justice if confirmed.

Crash In Ditch Injures Two

Patrick Lay, 22, of Rte. 1, Gladstone, was reported in fair condition this morning at St. Francis Hospital after being injured in a traffic accident at 10:30 a.m. Friday.

Details on the extent of his injuries were not immediately available at the hospital, but State Police officers who investigated the accident reported that Lay suffered a fractured leg and also hip injuries.

Priscilla Huber, 28, a U. S. Air Force nurse enroute to Malstrom AFB, Mont., was treated at St. Francis Hospital for lacerations and then taken to K. I. Sawyer AFB Hospital for further observation, officers reported.

Collide In Ditch

State Police said the accident happened when Lay, who was driving a van-type vehicle, was attempting to pass a truck on U.S. 2 in Masonville Township about three tenths of a mile east of County Rd. 513.

Troopers said that Lay saw Miss Huber's car approaching and veered into the ditch. Miss Huber, seeing the van approaching in her lane, also veered into the ditch. Troopers said the vehicles collided in the ditch.

Four other traffic accidents—including one involving a bear and another a deer—were investigated by State Police. None involved injury to motorists, officers said.

At 7:10 a.m. Friday, a tanker truck driven by Melville Lant, St. Ignace, and a car driven by Allen Rabitoy, 19, of 621½ Minnesota Ave., Gladstone, collided on U.S. 2 and 41 at the County Rd. 426 intersection in Wells Township. Lant was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way.

Officers also ticketed Joseph Brennan, 42, of Little Lake, for failure to stop in the assured clear distance after an accident on County Rd. 412 in Wells Township about 9:15 p.m. The accident happened when Brennan attempted to pass a car driven by Gary Sexton, 19, of 320 Wisconsin Ave., Gladstone, as Sexton started to make a left turn. Brennan said he did not see any turn signal.

Hits Bear

The bear was hit by a car driven by Rodney Groleau, Rte. 3, Rapid River, on US-2 at about the same place as the collision between the Lay and Hughes vehicles. Muriel Carlson, Rte. 1, Escanaba, struck a deer with her car on County Rd. 569 in Spalding Township.

Traffic summonses were issued to the following motorists Friday: Byron Zanella, 624 S. 21st St., speeding; Michael Walters, Manistique, speeding; Alfred Stroud, Sagola, improper passing on curve; Leonard O'Connor Jr., Green Bay, Wis., improper lane usage, and Bob Patrick, Reeboro, Ga., speeding.

Briefly Told

The Escanaba Area PTA Council will hold its first meeting Monday, Sept. 23, at John Lemmer School beginning at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

Cub Scout Pack 430 of Ford River held a pack meeting at the Lions Clubhouse Thursday night. Three new members of the Pack received Bobcat pins, and seven boys received Webelos badges. Reginald Peterson is the cubmaster for the year, Allan Boyd is Webelos leader and Penny Flath is den mother.

Ernest Visineau, 17, of 1518 N. 23rd St., was ordered by Municipal Court today to be held in the Delta County jail until Thursday, when he will be released to enter the U. S. Army. Visineau pleaded guilty to a charge of assaulting a 12-year-old Escanaba Junior High School student in the 100 block, N. 15th St., at 4:30 p.m. Friday. Escanaba police who made the arrest said the assault was without provocation.

Robert Grignon, 19, Menominee, was ordered to pay a fine of $75 and costs of $5 and to make restitution for medical bills after he pleaded guilty in Municipal Court today to a charge of assaulting and battery. The complaint was by James Burroughs, 19, and city police said the assault occurred Thursday evening in the 300 block, N. 16th St.

qualify for the ballot and now there is not sufficient legal time to do so.

To discuss the problem a public meeting has been called at the college, Room 10, at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 25. All interested persons are invited to attend.

President Richard Rinehart of the college said that the State Election Office, State Department of Education and legal counsel had been consulted and agreed that it is too late for candidates to file properly for election to the college board of trustees.

"We erroneously informed the public that 30 days' time was required. We made this mistake by not checking for amendments to the law," Dr. Rinehart said. "I was wrong in earlier statements based on the procedures in effect the last time we held an election."

This means, he said, that all persons interested in running for the board will have to do so on a ballot write-in basis.

There is now no known method by which a ballot listing nominees can be prepared legally.

Directly affected are Trustees Joseph L. Heirman of Escanaba and Clayton Ford of Cornell,

Jekyll And Hyde Nature In Dogs

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Some dogs have Jekyll and Hyde personalities, a doctor says.

They stay home in the daytime and join wild packs at night, Dr. R. B. Phillips, chairman of a Georgia Medical Association committee, told a wild dog study committee hearing.

The committee heard reports that wild dogs have killed $1.5 million worth of Georgia cattle this year. It is proposing legislation to control the estimated 30,000 unvaccinated strays in Georgia.

One dog lover told the committee: "We love our dogs just as much as you love your cattle. I want you to take this into consideration."

Gladstone Growth

Gladstone votes on Monday to authorize a new water filtration plant. It needs it. It has needed it for a long time. It can acquire it now, Gladstone City Manager H. J. Henrikson has informed the community, with its current income from its water service rates. There need not be any increase in rates to pay for the plant, there need not be any new tax to retire the bonds that will finance the plant.

There hasn't been a big whoop-and-holler of a campaign to put over the project, but we hope that the citizens of Gladstone recognize this as a project that is vital to the quality growth of their community and one which can be financed without new service charges or tax burdens.

The present water rates in Gladstone were revised more than a year ago to provide the income that will be needed to finance the new water plant. It will cost $810,000 and the bonded debt will be retired with water department income over a period of 29 years.

To put over the project it is necessary for Gladstone voters to vote "Yes" on all three proposals on the ballot.

They are:

1. Shall the City of Gladstone borrow $810,000 and issue general obligation bonds to improve its water system?
2. Shall the Gladstone charter be amended to permit bonding up to 10 per cent of the assessed valuation of the community? The assessed valuation is now $9 million and the bonding limit is now 8 per cent and they don't permit a water project costing $810,000.
3. Shall the charter provision for equal annual principal payments on city bonds be amended? It is planned to increase the principal payments on the bonds as the interest payments drop so that early yearly payments are not so high. The charter change is necessary to accomplish this.

The Press strongly recommends a "Yes" vote on the water bonds.

Gladstone has for years been under notice from its own health officers and those of the state that its water has undesirable color and quality, especially when Little Bay de Noc, its water source, is roiled by heavy wave action. When this happens the city water treatment plant must add more chlorine to maintain acceptable health standards and this creates an undesirable taste.

Gladstone has a splendid record of community quality growth. A good water supply is basic to this process, as are a good sewerage system, a good educational system, good thoroughfares, police services, etc. It has deferred water system improvement overlong and now proposes to accomplish it in one major project.

There are many reasons for voting "Yes" for pure water for Gladstone and no good reasons for further delay in improvement of this most basic of community services.

The Hot Potato

Like the locusts, the 17-year-old hassle over pay-TV has popped into view again.

It has been that long since supporters of subscription television — makers of the necessary equipment, entrepreneurs and others — first began pressing the Federal Communications Commission for permission to set up an experimental system. A pilot station was finally authorized for Hartford, Conn., in 1962.

In the meantime, innumerable congressional and FCC hearings and a favorable U. S. Court of Appeals ruling on a challenge to pay-TV's legality have failed to budge the idea from its one-city experimental status.

Depending upon which ax you grind, subscription television is either a complement or a threat to existing commercial television. The National Association of Broadcasters charges that it would eventually destroy free television, though it hasn't done so yet in Hartford where for the past six years subscribers have been enjoying such commercial-free box-office attractions as first-run movies, Broadway plays and other special features at an average expenditure of about $1.25 a week per family.

Also, nationwide pay-TV would be governed by stringent FCC rules. For instance, it would only be permitted in cities which already have four commercial stations in operation. It would not be permitted to televise any sports event that had been regularly televised in the community.

After 17 years, the impatience of the pay-TV people is understandable. What they are now asking is simply that Congress either outlaw subscription television completely once and for all, or give it the chance to succeed or fail on its own merits in the homes of the nation.

The decision lies with the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, Rep. Harley O. Staggers, chairman. The West Virginia Democrat has indicated that the committee will once again postpone action.

Pay-TV is, apparently, just too hot to handle — but not to mishandle.

"Now Go Out an' Give 'em Hell, Hubert!"

Predict Hubert On Gloomy, Uphill Road

By BRUCE BISSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Vice President Hubert Humphrey's managers have just been given a shockingly gloomy report on his prospects for carrying New York State with its huge and vital electoral vote.

The report is not a statewide survey but merely a privately taken poll of two urban areas. Yet the message is devastating, for they are two Jewish districts in Brooklyn which normally deliver an enormous Democratic vote but this time show a very heavy leaning toward Richard Nixon.

As an indication that this poll was no freak, a group within a major Jewish fraternal organization in New York City recently took a private vote and it came out 20 to 4 for Nixon over Humphrey.

There are other signs of impending disaster in New York. Humphrey's campaign organization in the state is a jerry-built edifice, so badly financed halfway through September that his people as of this writing were still having trouble lining up headquarters space.

Reform Democrats who favored Sen. Eugene McCarthy but now are moving behind Humphrey nevertheless report that many of their number are sitting listlessly on the sidelines, still unwilling to pitch in.

It is almost comical to hear that at this late stage some Democratic congressmen in New York were being pressed to "get together and come out" for Humphrey. Such support should be automatic and early.

In the judgment of one Democratic professional in New York, the evident big turn-away in the Jewish vote is principally a "law and order" phenomenon. He sees this as the big issue of the campaign, and the one that appears to have put Humphrey on the road to disaster even before he achieved full campaign speed.

The more generous estimates of Humphrey's November prospect have shown him far behind Nixon, yet leading in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Michigan among the big states he must crack to have any hope of victory.

Already these liberal estimates are being called into question. As indicated here, the New York outlook is very bad. Fresh reports from Pennsylvania and New Jersey also are negative for Humphrey. At this moment, only Massachusetts among the 10 biggest seems a reasonable Humphrey bet.

Professionals who worked the transcontinental telephone circuit during the vice president's first week on the road got a flow of disaster reports they could hardly believe. One such Democrat was so stunned he said, only half in jest:

"Hubert Humphrey may be the first presidential nominee in history to lose all 50 states." This man's view is that the remarkably potent third party candidacy of Alabama's George Wallace will in the end prove far more damaging to Humphrey than to Nixon. The vice president seems to be very badly whipped between the "law and order" discontent on one side and the antiwar clamor on the other.

Seeing his dilemma but unsure how to deal with it, he has been floundering about wildly. His worst flopping came in the aftermath of his ill-founded and subsequently retracted prediction of U. S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam.

He looked painfully foolish in Houston when, to support his talk on withdrawals, he waved a newspaper which reported that a Marine unit was returning home. In fact, of course, it is being replaced by an Army unit.

A professional politician here indicated how unsettling that performance was when he said:

"If a guy will wave a paper around and go off with something like that, you have to wonder, if he got to be president, whether his elbow might bump the (nuclear war) button on his desk."

Barely started on the long trail to Nov. 5, Hubert Humphrey is conceded by his own managers to be in a hard uphill fight. In truth, the first overwhelming cascade of disaster reports suggests he is only inches from the bottom of the hill.

See if you can find the correct way to play today's hand without looking over the East and West hands.

There are two rather attractive wrong ways to play it. The first is to duck the heart lead in both hands. This won't cost you anything if a heart is returned but a club shift will prove disastrous.

The second is to win the first heart with your king, run off your diamonds to see what happens and then to lay down the king of spades. This line will succeed if East and West discard badly or if West takes

The correct line of play is to count your tricks carefully. You have seven tricks in top cards and two potential tricks in spades. How can you get those two tricks?

If you could get to dummy twice you could lead up to your hand both times but you are going to reach dummy once and once only. Therefore you can only lead toward your spades that one time.

You study a little more and see the danger of ducking in both hands or of winning that first heart with your king. You go right up with dummy's ace; lead a spade, play your 10 and make your contract because East holds the jack.

Incidentally, we want to commend North's raise to three no-trump. An ace is four points but it looks mighty forlorn all by itself among those deuces and treys and some players might decide to pass.

THANKS

I would like to pay tribute to a nice guy and a very good friend of mine for a job well done. I'm referring to William G. Morrow, business agent for Local 324. He retired the 18th of this month.

Not because of old age or because he is unable to cope with the situation, but it's because he had been voted out of office. Said office being the Operating Engineers, I would like to remind the public that he built this organization from scratch, using his own hard-earned money to do so, until such time when it became a self supporting union.

It took a good many years of heart-breaking work and many sleepless nights to accomplish this feat and I say every working man in this U. P., regardless of what union they belong to, owes Mr. Morrow a vote of thanks, because every contract he negotiated was for the good of all working men, not just the Operating Engineers and I think the public in general owes him a vote of thanks.

Due to the fact that every working man is buying like mad it can be safely said that this could be his fault. I think he deserves more credit than some of our hair brained politicians that are screaming their heads off because the working man is making such a good living.

And last but not least I'd like to pay a high tribute to a wonderful lady, one who stood by Mr. Morrow through all those heart-rending years and gave him the courage and support he needed to go on fighting when the chips were down.

When a man has some one of that caliber to urge him on he can't lose. So I say good luck in the years ahead for as nice a couple as you'll ever meet anywhere. Good luck and God bless you both, Bill and Gert Morrow.

Dear Ann Landers: Our wonderful young delivery boy lies unconscious in a hospital at this very moment, hovering between life and death. A truck driver did not see him on his bicycle, even though the bike had a small light on the rear fender.

Why doesn't the National Safety Council put the pressure on the manufacturers and make it mandatory that they use fluorescent paint, rule out black and gray and include a safety helmet with each bicycle for a minimal charge?

Dear K. E. B.: I await word from either the National Safety Council or the manufacturers of bicycles. Your suggestions make a great deal of sense to me. Thank you for them.

Dear Ann Landers: I feel like a fool writing to you but I do need help with a problem and I hate to snitch on a friend. So — if you please, Ann.

A gentleman who takes me out socially is too vain to wear glasses although he is past 30 and, heaven knows, perfect vision at his age would be too much to hope for. He is forever borrowing my specs to read menus, theater programs, etc. I wouldn't mind except his face is larger than mine and he bends my glasses out of shape.

I am reasonably certain he has his own specs because he MUST read newspapers and magazines and a book now and then. But apparently he uses his own glasses in private. When in public, he prefers to bend mine.

Is there a solution — something other than a direct assault on his vanity? — GLASS CURTAINS

Dear Glass: Leave your glasses at home and carry a lorgnette — an inexpensive one with magnifying glasses attached to a stick. They are strictly for ladies. When the gent asks for your glasses, hand him the lorgnette. After a time or two I'll bet he'll bring his own glasses.

Dear Ann Landers: A relative came to visit several months ago. The length of his stay disqualifies him as a guest. He is now a nuisance.

The leech does not contribute anything to this household except conversation which is not needed since there are already plenty of good talkers around here. He has a hearty appetite and sleeps like a log (until noon) — never thinking to pick up after himself or makes his own bed.

Every day he tells us how much he loves California and says it is fun, fun, fun. Of course it is when you don't have to pay for anything and don't have to work.

How can I tell him in a tactful way to leave? — TONGUE-TIED TESSIE

Dear T. T. T.: Untie your tongue and don't concern yourself with tact. It would be wasted on this character. If you people who write to me about free-loading relatives would be half as frank with them as you are with me, you wouldn't have the problem long.

Too many couples go from matrimony to acrimony. Don't let your marriage flop before it gets started. Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Marriage — What To Expect." Send your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper enclosing 50c in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

School Resumes Busing Students

ing informed after the hearing in Marquette that the board meeting was a "committee meeting" and therefore not open to the public.

State law provides, however, that any committee meeting can be declared a special meeting at which business can be transacted by unanimous vote of all members of the body.

Restoration of services apparently will force the school district into spending more money than local tax revenue and state aid will provide for the 1968-69 school year.

Costs To Rise
Cutbacks totaling a b o u t $249,000 had been approved to balance the budget and also to repay deficit incurred in 1967-68 operations.

Members of the Board of Education and school administrators indicated that even if the 4.9 mills proposed Nov. 5 is approved, this will not necessarily solve school finances for 1969-70 operations, leaving the possibility of another millage election in the spring.

Wage increases built into three-year master contracts for teachers and non-professional employees which run through 1970-71 coupled with normal increases in costs for supplies and materials automatically will boost 1969-70 spending.

Three members of the Board of Education—Kenneth West, Daniel Wellman and Dr. Donald Alimonti—previously favored immediate restoration of bus service. Besides Kaziatek and Tooman, Trustee Albin Pearson Jr. changed his position.

Seeks Cooperation
Pearson, who is now president of the school board since the resignation of Richard Hanson, said the biggest thing the board wants in its efforts to operate the school district is cooperation.

"The people have said the board must show faith," he said. "We have asked the State of Michigan to audit our books, the courts have found us legal and at the same time made some suggestions for improvement. But this means that the cooperation of the B. U. S. (Better Understanding of Schools) committee and other interested groups is even more essential. It's the only way we are going to solve this thing."

Tooman said the next question is "Where do we go from here?"

He said he was influenced most by Davidson's decision and also the question of what constitutes deficit spending.

"However, if we don't get the needed millage and we continue to spend more than our income—and we will have to spend it if we are going to provide the children with an education—the state will take over the district," he said. "I don't think the people really want that. That's why cooperation on the part of everyone is so essential."

Beyond Point
Kaziatek said that "if the board is to provide leadership in the community we have to go beyond proving our point." He said in the past two weeks people "have told me that they never believed a school board before but they feel this one has made its point."

Davidson, in refusing to issue the writ sought by U. P. Legal Service, Inc., on behalf of the rural parents, said that under Michigan law he could issue a Writ of Mandamus only when there is a "clearly defined duty" being ignored. He said that Michigan's School Code states that the board of education of a third class district may offer transportation services when it "deems it advisable."

The language of the law, Davidson said, shows that the Board has discretion in the matter of transporting students.

Disputes Issue
Attorney Nino Green, who presented the plaintiff's case, contended that the language "deems it advisable" applies only of how and where bus transportation services must be offered and not to the question of whether or not to offer them.

He said in not offering any transportation the board was abusing its discretionary powers. Green pointed out that a school district by law cannot require elementary children to walk more than a half mile and require secondary children to walk more than a mile to meet a bus.

If the Board of Education cannot do this, he said, then they shouldn't make children travel up to 15 miles to get to the actual building.

Nordberg, however, cited legal ruling which points out that a Board of Education has no more legal requirement to transport its students than it does to provide them with clothing or meals.

In making his argument, however, Nordberg asked for an immediate ruling by the judge to settle the question.

The hearing was attended by all members of the Board of Education, Barrett, the complaining parents and several members of the B. U. S. Committee.

Members of the B.U.S. Committee today expressed pleasure "to hear the announcement of the school board's unanimous decision to reinstate the buses and the other cuts that were made."

"This is the first of many steps that we hope will be taken together down the path of understanding and trust," the committee said.

To Seek Facts
The group, which was primarily organized for the purpose of reinstating the school bus program, said it aims to seek out facts and become thoroughly acquainted with how schools function and to try to find out how it, as a group of laymen, can help.

The committee said it hopes to promote, through more communication between parents, school teachers, school board members and administrators, better insight and understanding of the total problems of schooling.

"We also wish to strive for better unification of city and rural areas without our school district for cities cannot survive alone and neither can rural areas," the committee said.

"We seek to inform even people who do not seek information, as much, on their own, to not only vote, but to know what or who they are voting for."

"It is our primary aim to support any particular issue or candidate, but to thoroughly investigate and honestly inform our people as to the facts and figures involved so they can be more informed to reach their decisions intelligently."

Boating Center Grows:

Vinette Contributes To Marine Expansion

By CLINT DUNATHAN

Escanaba is a growing center of marine activity, thanks in large part to the expanding operations of the T. D. Vinette Co., a boat-building firm whose steel-hulled commercial and pleasure craft are sailing all of the Great Lakes and some of the Seven Seas.

Dale Vinette, president of the company, said that construction of a second building in the new facility being established on the North Bay Shore will be started on Monday.

"It will be a winter storage building that will be completed in time to put boats under cover this fall," said Vinette. "The target date for completion is Oct. 10."

Besides a first building, the Vinette company has finished improvement of its dock and is planning for the removal of its boat building operations from 2201 6th Ave. N. to the North Bay Shore location next summer.

Industry Grows
The boat building industry was developed by Vinette after he returned to his native Escanaba from service with the U. S. Navy in World War II. Beginning with the fabrication of ornamental iron, Vinette became associated with Emerson Kidd and they developed the business into the production of steel-hulled boats. The first "factory" was in the 500 block of Ludington St., outgrowing that space the plant was moved to 6th Ave. N., and now is scheduled to relocate on the bay shore in 1969.

One of the advantages of the new location will be the direct launching of new boats without trucking them to the city's marine railway in the yacht basin, plus facilities for bringing boats up for repair and storage.

Second On Order
Over the years Vinette has built boats big and little, for fishermen, yachtsmen, for commerce and for government; including sturdy tugs that throw their power around in shipping channels, and passenger craft among the speediest on the Great Lakes.

One of the latter is the 63-foot Ethel Marie, built for Harry Ryba of Mackinac Island and put on the passenger run to the historic island in the Straits this year. Incidentally, Ryba, known on the island as "the fudge king," is also helping another Escanaba industry—Saykly Candies—by introducing Saykly sweets to island visitors.

"The Ethel Marie has a capacity of 106 passengers and cruises at a speed of 23.4 miles an hour, the fastest boat of her kind on the Lakes."

Vinette will put the Ethel Marie into storage at Escanaba for the winter—and he has an order to build a second craft like her for Ryba's Lake View Transit Co.

Landing Craft
Another Vinette boat, a luxury tug constructed for Capt. Frank Becker of Detroit, is also at Escanaba and will within the next two weeks have a new steering system and an automatic pilot installed on her. There's a sewage holding tank and pumping system also to be installed on the tug before Capt. and Mrs. Becker leave Escanaba to cruise down Lake Michigan and the Mississippi to the Gulf for a winter in Florida. The tug, named the Florence Becker for the captain's wife, has all of the appointments of a fine yacht. Escanaba will be indebted to Capt. Becker for additions to its marine park exhibit on the Municipal Dock, for the captain will bring here later this year anchors and ships' wheels to add to the display that proves of great interest to visitors and townspeople alike.

A far from handsome craft is also hauled out at Escanaba—a landing craft with square stern and bow jocularly named the "Flash"—which is expected to receive some attention from the Vinette workmen.

The "Flash" is owned by Summer Science, Inc., and carries people and supplies between Fairport and Big Summer Island, where the Summer Science school was held for its second season this year. Dan Stevens, Summer Science director, reports that the Summer Science project is growing, additional students are being enrolled, and that the outlook is optimistic for construction of additional facilities at the natural science school on the Delta County island.

Clean water can be restored to the Great Lakes just as forests have been brought back to Michigan's burned-over acres, declares Capt. Frank Becker, Detroit, one of the Lakes' veteran and experienced mariners.

"Michigan people should go for that state bond issue in November to help finance the fight against pollution," he said on his present visit to Escanaba with his Vinette-made tug the Florence K.

"Industry is spending millions of dollars in the effort to do its part in the battle and it will spend more," he declared. "Industry is serious about this and with its help we can lick pollution on the Lakes. But it will take time. It can't be done overnight."

Capt. Becker, whose colorful career and many cooperative and charitable activities win him friends wherever he goes, is practicing what he preaches.

The Florence K. is having a 200 gallon retaining tank put on her here, and this with a chlorinator and pump will outfit her in compliance with anti-pollution recommendations.

"The sanitary disposal of boats is absolutely necessary," said Capt. Becker. "Down in the Detroit area, for example, there are 600,000 boats, which means that about a million people are on those boats. Think of the sewage that accumulates on the quantity of raw sewage going into the water."

Capt. Becker is proud of his Vinette-built boat. "She's second to none, very seaworthy, and good even in windrowed ice."

Mrs. Becker, the Captain and "Bosun" the dog, will in January start what Capt. Becker calls a cruise "that will make history." Aboard the Florence K. they will leave Detroit and go up Lake Huron to the Straits, thence down Lake Michigan to Chicago, enter the canal there and cruise down the Mississippi to the Gulf. From there they will cruise to Miami for the remainder of the winter—a trip of 1,800 miles.

What's unique too is that they'll have to fuel up only once, for the Florence K. carries 5,000 gallons of diesel fuel. She also has fresh water supply of 1,600 gallons.

Later this season Capt. Becker will bring a tug to Escanaba to be converted by Vinette. He is planning to have aboard some marine relics which he will present as a gift to the City of Escanaba for its marine park on the Municipal Dock.

The Captain's good deeds and benefactions are many, and in the Detroit area it includes taking civic groups, Girl Scouts, Head Start children and others on cruises that are both entertaining and educational.

Thant Reviews U. N. Progress

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary General U Thant told United Nations employees at their annual party Friday to take heart despite what he called the organization's current lack of "progress and discernable attainments."

"Standstills and setbacks... do spur individuals to renewed and more vigorous efforts," he said. "Such an occasion is, I believe, the present moment in the life of the United Nations."

He admitted that certain recent events had been "disappointing... particularly in the field of international peace and security."

He did not specifically mention any events, but Thursday he told correspondents and diplomats that events in Vietnam, the Middle East, Nigeria and Czechoslovakia made a "bleak and gloomy" world picture.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

In State Building?

Keep Highway Office Here, Council Urges

By CLINT DUNATHAN

The Michigan Highway Department should keep its office in Escanaba and should consider the possibility of housing it in space that could be provided in a state laboratory addition at the State Office Building.

These suggestions were offered informally by members of the Escanaba City Council and city administration to representatives of the State Highway Department in Lansing, said Councilman Harold J. Vanierberghe today.

Mayor Cecil B. Chase, Councilmen Vanierberghe, H. George Nelson and Robert Bink; City Manager George Harvey and City Clerk Don Guindon were in Lansing for the annual meeting of the Michigan Municipal League, providing the opportunity to consult with the Highway Department and other state agencies.

"We pointed out to the Highway Department that the largest industrial expansion and the greatest highway traffic are in the central Upper Peninsula region, and that the highest volume of highway construction and reconstruction will no doubt be in this area also," Vanierberghe said.

The Highway Department has announced plans to close the Escanaba office (which was established here a half century ago) and to transfer personnel to Newberry and Crystal Falls. "Certainly we should applaud the Highway Department's efforts toward economy, but we believe there will be a greater economy if the Upper Peninsula were consolidated into one district," Vanierberghe continued.

"We are not approaching this from a selfish motive, for we sincerely believe that the Escanaba area is the crossroads of the Upper Peninsula, and the highway needs of the whole U. P. can be efficiently and more economically served from Escanaba."

Vanierberghe is one of the leaders in efforts to improve the economy of the U. P. and as chairman of the Good Roads Federation worked tirelessly to bring adoption of a program of adequate financing and improved highways for Michigan.

He said the Escanaba delegation in Lansing pointed out to the Highway Department that this community had helped establish the State Office Building, and that proposals to house the Highway Department in new offices in an addition being designed for a state laboratory should be favorably considered.

The Highway representatives were also advised by Councilmen that they consider the proposal to remove the trees along Memory Lane (U. S. 2-41) in Escanaba and Wells Township a matter for State Highway decision. The approval of the Council is unnecessary, the state was told.

At the Municipal League sessions, topics of reapportionment of county boards, uniform time, regionalism and home rule were discussed. Finance and fiscal problems were also high on the discussion list.

At the League's annual business meeting on Thursday re-elected was Thomas R. McNabb, Marquette city manager, a trustee for three years.

Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor was elected president of the League, succeeding Mayor Chris Sonneveldt of Grand Rapids.

A. Bissonette Dies Thursday

Adolph R. Bissonette, 76, of M-35, Menominee, died at his home on Thursday evening. He was born Oct. 14, 1891 in Lake Linden and he married the former Marian Carron of Escanaba in Calumet.

He was a member of St. William's Church of Menominee, a veteran of W. W. I. and a member of the W. W. I. Barracks of Menominee.

Mr. Bissonette was a retired exchange repairman for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., retiring in 1957 after 37 years of service.

He is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Cletus Felch of Menominee and five grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Kell Funeral Home in Menominee after 2 p.m. Sunday and funeral services will be conducted at 9 a.m. Monday at St. William's Church with the Rev. Louis Bracket officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

Two Bars Fined For Violations

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has fined two Escanaba bars.

Emil Auger, licensee of the Jolly Roger at 1111 Ludington St., charged with allowing an employ under 18 to entertain on July 27, was fined $75.

William J. King and Cecile S. King, licensees of King's Tavern, 918 Ludington St., charged with selling spirits on Sunday, Aug. 4 were fined $250.

State Tuition Grants Deadline Is October 14

High school seniors who wish to apply for State of Michigan tuition grants or competitive scholarships (more than $10,000,000 and as much as $1,600 per student) must take action by Oct. 14.

"The simplest thing to do," said John C. Hoekje, president of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Michigan, "is to see the counselors at their own schools for forms and advice."

"A maximum of $800 per year in tuition grants for use in private colleges, and another scholarship maximum of $800 per year for private or public colleges, are separate and distinct. A student who fails to qualify for the competitive scholarship may still be eligible for the tuition grant if he meets the admission standards of a private college in Michigan," he said.

A high school student doesn't have to make up his mind which college he wishes to attend, or even if he will definitely attend college, before the Oct. 14 filing deadline.

Briefly Told

Escanaba police have issued traffic court notices to Catherine M. Strasser, 311 S. 17th St., failing to exercise due care; Lawrence T. Riedy, 200 N. 21st St., permitting an unlicensed person to operate a motor vehicle; and Roger S. Houle, 317 Stephenson Ave., speeding.

Ed Viau of 1901 9th Ave. N. reported to city police that his son was bitten on the left leg by a muskrat in Rose Park at 8 p.m. Friday. The bite required treatment by a physician. The muskrat escaped.

400 Students Storm Philippines' Embassy

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — About 400 students stormed into the Philippine Embassy grounds and tore down the Philippine flag today in protest against a Filipino claim to the Malaysian state of Sabah.

Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman congratulated the students.

"Malaysia needs this kind of spirit," the prime minister told the students after they marched from the embassy to his official residence. "We appreciate this spirit to show that you are going to defend Malaysia."

Rahman then led the crowd in three shouts of "Merdeka," the Malay cry for freedom.

The students' invasion of the embassy grounds came after a rally at the University of Malaya protesting a Philippine law, signed Wednesday, annexing the Malaysian state in North Borneo.

Wading into the chanting crowd, the Philippines embassy second secretary, Rodolfo Diaz, retrieved the tattered remnants of his country's flag. He denounced the invasion as a violation of international law and said it would be reported to Manila immediately.

In Manila, newspapers and government officials expressed dismay over a statement by a U.S. State Department spokesman that the United States recognizes Sabah as part of Malaysia.

President Marcos summoned U.S. Ambassador G. Mennen Williams to the presidential palace today for a clarification of the U.S. position. The closed-door conference lasted 25 minutes and there was no statement afterward.

The U.S. Embassy said earlier that the United States has taken no position on the Sabah territorial dispute and that the statement was only a reassertion of American recognition of the Malaysian Federation in 1963.

The Philippines claims Sabah on the grounds that it was Philippines territory until the sultan of Sulu ceded part of North Borneo to a British syndicate in 1878. Sabah, formerly British North Borneo, became part of Malaysia in 1963.

Parke, Davis Is Sued For Bias

DETROIT (AP)—The Justice Department Friday filed a lawsuit accusing Parke, Davis & Co., a major pharmaceutical firm, of discriminating against Negroes in its employment at plants in Detroit and Ann Arbor.
The civil suit filed in U. S. District Court at Detroit, accuses Parke, Davis of violating the equal employment opportunities section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.
Of 3,000 employees in Detroit, Parke, Davis has only 150 Negroes, the suit said. It said about eight Negroes are employed among 470 in Ann Arbor 88 miles west of Detroit.
The suit asks that the court forbid Parke, Davis to continue any of the alleged discriminatory practices. It seeks an order requiring the drug maker to recruit and hire Negroes on the same basis as whites.
The company makes no effort, the suit charges, to recruit and hire Negro clerical and professional employees on the same basis as white applicants.
Instead, the suit alleges, the firm gives hiring preference to persons referred by or related to current employees, most of whom are white, rather than to "walk-in applicants," most of whom were said to be Negroes.
A spokesman for the firm said, after the lawsuit was filed, that "we do have an action program for the hiring of minority people."

4 Free-Spending Mich. Men Jailed; 2 Are Fugitives

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Four free-spending Michigan men, two of them identified as fugitives from a Michigan state penitentiary, were arrested here Friday in connection with a $9,400 bank holdup. All were jailed and charged as fugitives from justice.
Police said a shotgun, two pistols and about $4,000 in cash were seized from three motel rooms where the group registered.
Those jailed were identified as Alan Adams, about 30, his brother Clarence, 29, both of Pontiac; Anthony John Ballor, 26, Detroit, and John Clark Green, 27, of Lansing.
Detective Sgt. C. B. Dennis said Green and Ballor were fugitives from Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson, Mich., and already had been charged in federal warrants issued in Michigan in connection with the holdup Monday of Woodruff State Bank, Dewitt, Mich.
"They had really been living it up here, spending money like water," Detective Elmer Williams said.

30 per cent, with Democratic Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey last among the three.
Edly Peterson, Republican state chairman, says "he's much stronger than people originally gave him credit for in Michigan," and she's conceding Wallace will get more than 10 per cent of the ballots cast.
Not Sure Of Size
State Sen. Sander Levin, Democratic state chairman, also credits Wallace with "in excess of 10 per cent," adding, "I'm not sure by how much."
George N. Higgins, a former Republican state senator and longtime dabbler in Michigan politics, would "be awfully surprised if he gets as much as 17 per cent" and doubts that he'll carry a single county.
"The local politicians here are saying up to 25 per cent," reports State Rep. Richard Young, D-Deerborn Heights. "The lowest I've heard is 15 per cent."

Sault Shrine Is Opened Friday

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — The St. Mary's Bell Tower, a 210-foot, three-columned concrete structure described as the first phase of a "Shrine of the Missionaries," was opened with a ribbon-cutting ceremony in Sault Ste. Marie Friday.
The event attracted approximately 1,000 persons.
The Rev. Arnold L. Casanova, vice chancellor of the Catholic Diocese of Marquette, was principal speaker and said the tower memorializes the 300-year past of the Soo and "must serve as an inspiration for the future."
The Rev. Robert Monroe, pastor of St. Mary's Church, said a museum containing artistic portrayals of the lives of missionaries who founded Sault Ste. Marie would come next, and the third phase of construction would include a community center and new church.
While awaiting completion of the other phases, the tower will serve as an observation platform overlooking the area. One column contains an elevator. The other two have stairs.

HHH Pick Stirs Dissent In UAW

DETROIT (AP)—The Democratic presidential ticket has been recommended for endorsement by the International Executive Board of the United Auto Workers Union to UAW delegates currently meeting over the country to make a Nov. 5 election choice.
But a leader in the campaign of third-party candidate George C. Wallace said this showed the "chiefs want to do the picking, instead of leaving it to the Indians."
And one of its largest local unions is recommending the UAW bypass endorsement of anyone in the interest of "peace and harmony."
As union president, Walter P. Reuther heads the 26-member executive board, which recommends Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Me., as the best qualified from the UAW's point of view.
A top union source confirmed such a resolution was sent and that it was adopted by a voice vote of some 150 delegates attending a regional convention in Kansas City last Saturday.

state vice-chairman of the Wallace movement, terms his 45 to 50 per cent for Wallace "conservative."
Sampling Results
Lee said a recent sampling of 3,314 persons in factories, shops and office buildings in down-river Detroit gave Wallace 74 per cent; Nixon 15 per cent and Humphrey 5, with 6 per cent undecided.
Lee says there are 12 Wallace headquarters open over the state and that Michigan contributions are financing a budget of around $500 a week for his territory.

He reported the Wallace organization buying four spots daily on a Detroit radio station this week and paying $320 for their five-day run. In addition, he said quarter-page ads have been purchased in seven Detroit suburban weeklies and in the Macomb Daily at a cost of $150 to $200 each.
Lee estimates there are 250 to 300 Wallace volunteers working in the metropolitan area and that statewide the total "would have to be 1,000 at least."
Where's the money coming from?

Little Old Lady From Pasadena Will In Probate

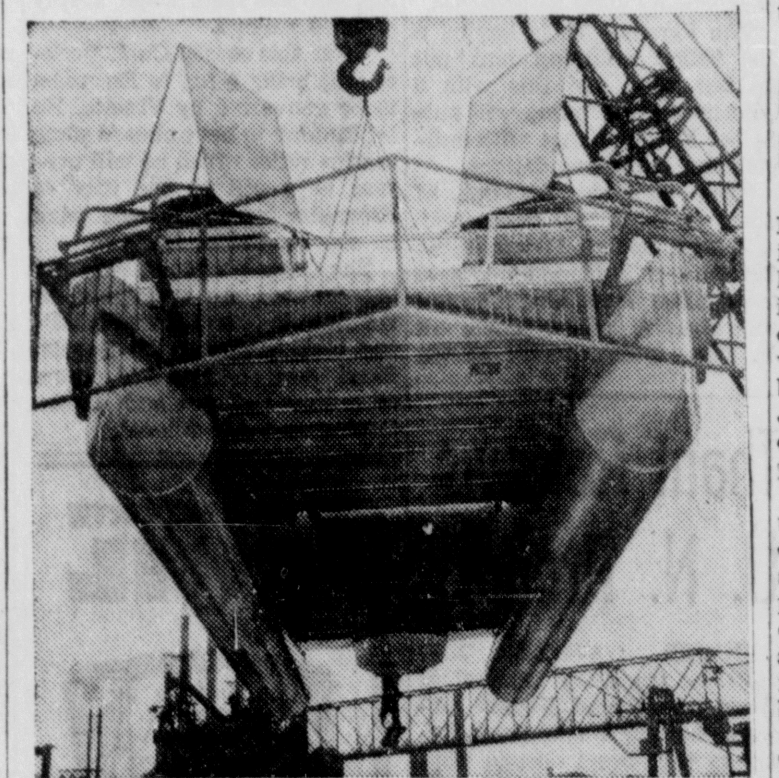

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — "The little old lady in tennis shoes from Pasadena" is being laid to rest by the city embarking Friday on a 44-day festival of progress.
The mythical lady was created by comedian Jack Benny on an early radio show. A conniving used-car salesman would hook the bargain-conscious Benny by selling him a car driven only by "a little old lady in tennis shoes from Pasadena."
Her will is going through actual probate. It bequeaths her rocking chair to Red Skelton, her shawl to Jonathan Winters, and a collection of old bottles to Dean Martin.
"She's a symbol of our past now," said a city spokesman.

Who is Wallace going to hurt most by siphoning off votes that normally would go to the Republican or Democratic nominee?
The answer depends generally upon whether you ask a Republican or a Democrat.
Mrs. Peterson thinks most of Wallace's support will come from Democrats, saying, "I don't notice any appreciable shift - off in our (Republican) strength in any areas."
Levin says he isn't sure where Wallace strength is coming from, but suspects it's from both major parties.
"I'm hopeful when the full facts about what Wallace stands for are clear," Levin said, "his vote will not be decisive. One of our jobs is to make these facts clear. We're working on it."

U. P. Inspection
Jean Worth, editor of the Escanaba Press, is of the opinion that Wallace defection in the Upper Peninsula will hurt Nixon worst there, but he adds he doesn't expect the number to be "enormous or big."
Worth voiced an opinion expressed by others, including Rep. Anderson. It was this: "Some people, a little ashamed to show up at a Wallace meeting, won't show any hesitancy in casting a secret ballot for him."

Ask Candidates To Sign Pledges

DETROIT (AP)—Democratic and Republican party officials in Michigan are requesting their candidates to sign pledges that they will avoid any racist appeals in campaigning this year.
Announcement of the pledge action was made jointly by State Sen. Sander M. Levin, Democratic state chairman, and Mrs. Edly Peterson, the Michigan GOP chairman.

"SUPER SPONGE," a new oil skimmer, is lowered into the boat slip near Dearborn, Mich., top, where the outboard-powered catamaran went to work soaking up oil with a water-repellent polyurethane foam roller. The boat, which can collect as much as 2,100 gallons of light viscosity oil in an hour, cruises waters around Ford's Rouge industrial area, bottom, adding mobility to the company's pollution-control facilities.

Milk Production May Swing Up

By DR. JOHN FERRIS
Michigan State University
Livestock prices are expected to edge lower into the fall. Another year of low grain prices is in the offing. And USDA economists see a possible "turnaround" in declining milk production.
Since 1965, the number of dairy cattle in Michigan has declined by 20 per cent as has the number of shippers in the Southern Michigan market area. For the U. S. as a whole, dairy cow numbers have dropped 13 per cent and production has declined by five per cent.

As the result of this decline in production, higher milk support prices and the bargaining activity of the Michigan Milk Producers Association (more recently as a part of the Great Lakes Milk Marketing Federation), base milk prices have increased by more than $1 per cwt and excess prices have increased by $1 in the past three years.
With prices sharply higher, many have been looking for a "turnaround" in production. The relationship between milk prices and feed grain prices is at record high levels and promises to continue that way in the months ahead. Pasture conditions have been unusually good in major dairy states. While livestock prices remain somewhat attractive also, cash grain operations are faced with another year of low returns.
But so far, the total impact of all of these influences has only been to slow down the rate of decline in milk output. Perhaps dairy farmers are hesitant about expanding with imitation and filled milk on the horizon. But whatever the reason, the "turnaround" has not yet developed. However, USDA dairy economists see this as a real possibility for the last quarter of 1968.

Pay $215 Fine For Possessing Coho

PETOSKEY (AP) — Jerry Fedynik, 27, Onaway, paid $215 in fines, costs and restitution here on his guilty plea to illegal possession of Coho salmon. Fedynik and Leland G. Jarvis, 28, Tower, both appeared before Justice John Kierin but Jarvis was jailed for 60 days or until a similar penalty is paid.
Emmet County Sheriff's deputies said the two were accused of possessing about 60 Coho salmon weighing less than one pound each and reportedly taken from a state fish hatchery at Oden. A third man pleaded innocent and was released on bond for a hearing Sept. 27.

Tailgate Defect Holds Up Wagons

PONTIAC (AP) — Pontiac Motors division of General Motors Corp. is reported to have advised its dealers over the country to withhold 1969 model station wagons from display or sale, pending the repair of possible defects in dual-action tailgates.
This report was confirmed by dealers in both Michigan and North Carolina.
Pontiac told dealers in a letter there was a possibility that dual-action tailgates on some of the division's first-run 1969 station wagons might drop off when opened.
Dealers were advised to withhold station wagons from display or sale until a factory representative arrived to effect repairs or identify vehicles without tailgate defect.

Plane Crash Kills Six; Miracle Saves 16,000

FARNBOROUGH, England (AP) — "It was a miracle the plane hit the ground where it did, with hardly anyone about," an air show official says of the crash that killed six persons but missed 16,000 in the main spectator area.
The five-man French crew and one person on the ground were killed Friday when the experimental twin-engine Breugot—demonstrating one-engine flying—plunged into a row of aircraft buildings.

Rescue workers searched the wreckage today to make certain no other spectators had died in the crash.
As the plane hit, a wing sliced into a shed. The high tail section cartwheeled over roofs, and the fuselage and engines exploded over a wide area in a huge cloud of orange flame and black smoke.
The fireball erupted just yards away from a main fuel dump. Minutes before, a social club wrecked in the crash had been full of Royal Air Force men.
A formal inquiry begins today and two key questions are whether the plane was flying too slowly and too low.
One pilot who saw the crash said: "It is obvious to us that the aircraft was flying too slowly and too low, having regard to the prevailing wind speed, which was very high."

Crime Increase In 6 Michigan Cities

By The Associated Press
Crime showed an increase in six of eight Michigan cities during the first half of 1968, compared with the same six months of 1967, the Federal Bureau of Investigation reported today.
Of the six Michigan cities surveyed, only Dearborn and Livonia, both Detroit suburbs, showed a decrease, the FBI said. Detroit, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Saginaw, Flint and Warren reported increases, but generally they were lower than the 21 per cent gain which FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover reported for the nation as a whole in this year's first six months.
Hoover also said that suburban areas reported a 21 per cent rise, while crime in rural areas was up 14 per cent.

Another pilot said it appeared that after the demonstration of one-engine flying, the plane's captain tried to restart the left engine, but "I don't think it started."
The Breugot turboprop plane was built to the specifications of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization by the industry of six nations. It is in service with the French and West German navies.
Its crash was the first disaster at the Farnborough air show since 1952, when a De Havilland DH110 twin-jet fighter disintegrated and crashed into the crowd, killing 30 persons.
Farnborough is the showcase for British military and civil aircraft.

Reuther Compares Wallace To Hitler

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — United Auto Workers president Walter Reuther recently compared third party presidential candidate George Wallace to Adolf Hitler and said Wallace would "destroy" America.
Reuther urged delegates attending an Ohio and West Virginia UAW regional conference to vote for the Democratic presidential candidate, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.
"We are living at a time of great crisis in America," he said. "And I know there is great fear, uncertainty, and anger in our land today. You must find answers in the anguish of your fears."
Wallace would create a police state and the first thing "a police state does is destroy the free labor movement," Reuther added.

New U.S. Mint

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The cornerstone has been laid on Philadelphia's fourth U.S. mint at a site only two blocks from the location of the first mint and not far from historic Independence Hall.
Secretary of the Treasury Henry B. Fowler said the $14 million structure would be the largest and most modern mint in the world.
The new coinage works is expected to open for production early next year.

Big Cedar River May Get Salmon

Big Fishdam Rates Top Coho Prospect

The 5 pound adult coho salmon taken in a Conservation Department net in Little Bay de Noc this week near Hunter's Point opposite Gladstone was not from the planting of young cohos last spring in Haymeadow Creek of the Whitefish River system, says Clifford Long, Escanaba District fish biologist of the Michigan Conservation Department, which made the planting.

"We haven't determined where this coho came from," said Long, "but it wasn't from the Whitefish planting."

Action At Thompson

There has been a watch for weeks in upper waters of Little Bay de Noc for first signs of the jacks (young males) of the Whitefish planting which are expected to run from Great Lakes waters back into the river this fall. This will provide the first salmon fishing in history in Little Bay de Noc waters, with the main thrust of the planting of 100,000 cohos in the Whitefish expected in the fall of 1969.

The big excitement in this area currently is the coho fishing in Lake Michigan at the mouth of Thompson Creek at Thompson where the state made an early planting of cohos. Hundreds of fishermen gather there daily to try for a salmon and argue that the Conservation Department should permit "snagging" (hooking) of the fish that won't take a lure.

Long said that Conservation Department fish specialists are very enthusiastic about the chances of developing a good coho fishery in the Big Fishdam River, which flows into the Big Bay de Noc arm of Lake Michigan near Garden Corners. The character of the stream is highly suitable for salmon culture, said Long, and the stream is in the Hiawatha National Forest and its banks are almost entirely available for public fishing because of federal ownership. It has a high priority in the Conservation Department's coho fishery development program.

Big Cedar River

The Conservation Department is also interested, said Long, in the possibility of developing a coho fishery in the Big Cedar River, which, like the Big Fishdam and Whitefish, has no dams

Knights To Install Officers Monday

Norbert Freiberger, Chancellor Donald Lewis, Recorder James Anderson, Warden Roger Jen-shak, Financial Secretary John Baribeau, Treasurer Louis Carr, Advocate Arthur Messier Sr., Guards Ernest Bernier and Lucian Malinowski, Trustees Irving Houle, Brother Felix and Richard Thompson.

Refreshments will be served.

A LITTER BETTER

VERSAILLES, Ky. (AP)—A wrecker service has this slogan painted on its trucks: "Our Business Is Picking Up."

Only Quarter Of Hearing Problems Get Expert Aid

The results are in on the July 8-17 hearing testing program of the Michigan Association for Better Hearing and Speech in Delta County and they show that of 788 persons tested 586 had less than normal hearing.

Of this number of 586 only 146, or 25 per cent, had been seen by a medical ear specialist. The other 75 per cent hadn't had any professional aid to bolster their impaired hearing.

Delta County has no medical ear specialist. It used to have two. It is one of the big gaps in the community's medical services program which has caused such a large traffic out of the area to places like Marquette, Menominee and Green Bay which provide such services.

Co-Sponsors

The mobile hearing unit of the survey, which was co-sponsored by the Delta-Menominee Health Department and the Better Hearing & Speech Society of Escanaba, set up free public examinations at the following places and examined the numbers of persons reported: Rapid River, 74; Rock, 63; Gladstone, 187; Escanaba, 379; Bark River, 52; Wells, 33.

Recommended: periodic re-check, 364; further evaluation by MABHS audiologist, 207; audiological evaluation at an existing facility, 8; medical evaluation, 7.

As would be expected, the largest number of the 788 tested and of the 586 found with hearing loss were in the upper age brackets. The hearing losses by age groups were: 18-25, 11; 26-35, 18; 36-45, 59; 46-55, 109; 56-65, 144; over 66, 231.

87 Persons A Day

More males, 402, were tested than females, 386.

The hearing therapists of the MABHS, a United Fund agency, were Robert Hughes and George Fuller. They averaged 87.4 persons a day for their 9 days in Delta County, and the 788 persons tested represent 2.3 per cent of the total population. The audiologists regarded the testing as an unqualified success and said that in three days of testing in Escanaba they could not have handled more persons than they screened, a response made "possible because of the effective advance publicity through the Health Department and the Better Hearing Society of Escanaba, and the active interest by county persons in hearing problems."

The Michigan Association gave a special "thank you" to the Hearing Society for its assistance and acknowledged the aid in providing space and power for its mobile unit to the Rapid River City Gas Station, Rock School, Gladstone City Hall, the Escanaba J. C. Penney Store, the Bark River Town Hall and the Wells Mobil Station.

Mrs. Michael Bruntjens (Gordon Nelson Studio)

Sharon Mattson Bride Of Michael Bruntjens

Miss Sharon June Mattson of Rte. 1 Escanaba became the bride of Michael Paul Bruntjens of Rte. 1 Gladstone during a ceremony performed Saturday, Sept. 14 at All Saints Church in Gladstone.

Msgr. Matt LaViolette solemnized the double ring nuptials at 12 noon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mattson of Rte. 1 Escanaba and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bruntjens of Rte. 1 Gladstone.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Richard Shervin of Escanaba, and bridesmaids were Diane Mattson, sister of the bride and Marie Bruntjens, sister of the bridegroom.

Satin and Lace

The bride chose for her wedding a floor length gown of satin backed crepe fashioned with a Chantilly lace bodice, long tapered sleeves and shallow scoop neckline. Her detachable chapel length train was also of Chantilly lace.

A cluster of pearl petals held her triple tiered shoulder length veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of ivory roses.

The bridal aides were attired in identical gowns of moss green and gold chiffon floor length frocks styled with long sleeves and full panel back trains.

Petal Headpieces

Matching petal headpieces with sequin and pearl trim and silk illusion veils completed their attire and they carried bouquets of bronze and yellow mums and pompons.

Serving as bestman was Ronald Bruntjens and further attending the bridegroom were James Jackovich and Peter Dementier. Seating the guests were Fred Neurohr and James Groleau.

Mothers' Attire

Mrs. Mattson chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua A-line dress with silver trim and bone accessories. Mrs. Bruntjens wore a turquoise crepe dress with white accessories and both mothers were presented corsages.

The wedding reception was held at the Midway in Gladstone and after a wedding trip to Wisconsin the couple will reside in Georgia, where Mr. Bruntjens is stationed with the U. S. Army. He is a graduate of Gladstone High School and the bride graduated from Escanaba Area High School.

Bark River PTA Meeting Held On Wednesday

Gerald Rittenburgh, superintendent of the Bark River-Harris Schools, addressed the Parent-Teacher group Wednesday night at the meeting held in the elementary school.

His topic was: "The Community, the Home and the Church". He also mentioned a new approach to the reading program and a new report card system in the elementary grades.

Rittenburgh introduced the new high school principal, William Pearson, who explained the new adult education program. A new secretary, Mrs. Terrance Glimm, was elected to replace Mrs. Walter Szczygiel who resigned. Mrs. Carl Ahlin's afternoon kindergarten class won the room award.

The Rev. Charles Beckingham, president, announced the following committee chairmen appointments: Program: Mr. and Mrs. Lenord Bower; Room Mother: Mrs. Wayne Hooker; Lunch: Mrs. Adolph Getzloff; Membership: Mrs. L. Murray.

Named to the Halloween Carnival committee are: the Mesdames Victor Wolf, Lawrence Knauf, Eugene Derocher, Jr., Victor Frossard, Lawrence Murray and Roy Bergstrom.

Lunch was served by the officers during the social hour which followed the business meeting.

Lucille Hayson And John Lynch Wed Today

St. Anthony's Church in Wells was the setting today, Sept. 21 for the wedding of Miss Lucille Margaret Hayson of Wells and John Lawrence Lynch of Gladstone.

The double ring ceremony and nuptial Mass was solemnized at 12 noon by the Rev. Norbert Freiberger.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayson of 401 N. 5th St., Wells and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Lynch of 317 S. 8th St., Gladstone.

Silk Organza

The bride chose for her wedding a floor length gown of white silk organza over taffeta styled with tapered long sleeves, modified scoop neckline and Empire waistline encircled with beaded Chantilly lace trim which was repeated on the matching detachable organza train.

Her triple tiered bouffant veil of imported French silk illusion was caught to a forward cluster headpiece and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor for the bride was Karen Lynch of Gladstone, sister of the bridegroom and bridesmaids were Susan Lynch, also a sister of the bridegroom and Claudia Hayson of Wells, a niece of the bride.

Chiffon, Taffeta

The bridesmaids were attired in gowns of peacock blue and the honor maid wore an identical gold gown. They were styled of chiffon over taffeta fashioned with Empire waistlines and elbow length sleeves.

Their matching headpieces were fashioned by the bridegroom's mother and they carried bouquets of mums and pompons. Little Cathy Hayson, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a white chiffon dress. Scott Lynch, brother of the bridegroom, carried the wedding rings.

Herbert LaCrosse Are Married Fifty Years

After 50 years of marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert LaCrosse renewed their marriage vows before the Rev. Charles Carmody on Saturday, Sept. 7, at St. Patrick's Church.

The 11 o'clock mass was sung by the family and friends accompanied by Mrs. Betty Lundin on the organ. Guest soloist, Miss Diane Coplan sang, "Ave Maria" before mass, and "Panis Angelicus" during communion.

Mr. and Mrs. LaCrosse reside at 122 S. 22nd in Escanaba and are the proprietors of Hub's Grocery.

White Wool

For the occasion Mrs. LaCrosse designed and wore a white wool A-line dress with gold accessories and a matching corsage. Mrs. Agnes LaSalle, a sister of Mr. LaCrosse, chose royal blue, also with matching corsage.

After Mass a wedding breakfast for the immediate family was served at the Stone House.

Reception

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Dells Supper Club from 4 until 7 p. m. The three tiered wedding cake topped with fresh flowers and trimmed in gold was baked and presented to the couple by Mrs. Elaine Carlson, the former Elaine Hurley, niece of Mrs. LaCrosse.

The punch bowl, coffee service and gift table were presided over by the six granddaughters. Dennis McGearry and Rosemary Srock, the youngest grandchildren circulated the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. LaCrosse received many gifts including a gold money tree constructed by the grandchildren.

Kaline's 4 Hits Help Tigers Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — Will Al Kaline, after a 15-year wait to see a World Series, watch his first game from the bench?

Detroit Manager Mayo Smith stayed silent on the question but the longtime Tiger star was taking a wry view after cracking four hits including a homer in a 6-3 victory over Washington Friday night.

It was Kaline who drove in six runs against the same Senators five months ago in the game that thrust the Tigers into first place to stay, and an observer asked after the latest performance why he seemed to hit so well against Washington.

"It's the only team I get to play regularly against," said Kaline, unsmiling.

Kaline boosted his batting average to .295 with his 4-for-4 night and ignited an outburst of three Tiger homers in the eighth inning as Detroit came from behind once again to win. Jim Northrup followed with his second two-run homer of the game and Jim Price tagged a bases-empty shot.

Kaline has vowed never to watch a World Series game in person until he could play in one, and the Tigers' pennant this year has given him first opportunity in his 15 seasons with Detroit.

But Smith-forced to choose between Willie Horton (36 homers) Northrup (team leader with 89 RBI, plus 21 homers), Mickey Stanley (good glove, 56 RBI) and Kaline in the outfield, or Kaline and Norm Cash (24 homers, .266) at first base isn't saying what lineup he'll use.

"These are nice problems to have," said Smith.

The victory over Washington was the Tigers' 100th of the year and stretched their winning streak to 10, longest in the majors this season.

It put the Tigers 14 games ahead of Baltimore, which lost to the Chicago White Sox 2-1.

Detroit's Mickey Lolich chalked up his 16th victory, which is the second highest of his career. He was relieved for a pinch hitter after seven innings, breaking the Tiger streak of 12 straight games in which the hurler had gone the distance.

The hitter was Gates Brown, who promptly slammed a double which was his 18th pinch hit of the year.

If the Tigers win one more game before the end of the season, they will tie the 101-victory marks set by the club in 1934 and 1961.

Lolich managed nine strikeouts but allowed seven walks. He was relieved by Pat Dobson, who pitched his fifth save of the season.

Dobson put the tying run on base in the ninth but then struck out Mike Epstein and got Frank Howard out on a short fly to Kaline.

Red Sox Drop Yankees, 4-3

By The Associated Press

Elmer Flick is back in business thanks to a late-season surge by Boston's Carl Yastrzemski.

Yaz slapped two singles and his 21st home run of the year Friday night, helping Boston to a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees and raising his American League leading batting average to .306.

That's the same mark that Flick managed in 1905—the lowest average ever to win a major league batting crown. Until Yastrzemski picked up a head of steam a month ago, it seemed that Flick's record would be erased in this season of sub-.300 averages.

But since Aug. 20, Yaz has had 43 hits in 99 trips to the plate, raising his average 31 points from .275. With just over one week to play and a 14-point cushion, Yastrzemski's second straight crown seems secure. And Elmer Flick's record may survive too.

Elsewhere in the American League Friday, Detroit pounded Washington 6-3, Chicago shaded Baltimore 2-1, and Oakland whipped Minnesota 7-1. Cleveland and California were not scheduled.

Yastrzemski's home run in the eighth turned out to be Boston's winning run when the Yankees staged a late comeback against Jim Lonborg, 6-8. But Lonborg survived Mickey Mantle's 536th homer and a ninth-inning shot by Bill Robinson.

After Robinson opened the ninth with his homer, Lonborg struck out the side, finishing the game with eight.

Reliever Wilbur Wood tied an American League record with his 82nd appearance of the year, helping the White Sox nail down their victory over the Orioles.

Wood matched the mark set by Eddie Sisher with Chicago in 1965.

Ken Berry drove in both Chicago runs with clutch singles.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter pitched Oakland past Minnesota with Danny Cater tagging a home run and Bert Campaneris stealing two bases. The two steals gave Campaneris 56—a single season a career high for him.

John Roseboro homered for the Twins.

Broncos Dump Tigers, 18-6

POWERS—Two second half touchdowns gave the Bark River-Harris Broncos an 18-6 Wolverine Conference victory over the Powers-Spalding Tigers in the first game played on Powers new lighted football field.

Ken Veeder scored two touchdowns and Len Olsen added another for the Broncos, who are now 3-0 for the season. Bob Mileski ran back an interception for the only Powers-Spalding score.

The Broncos totaled 166 yards on the ground, with Veeder picking up 81 and Olsen 85, and the Tigers had 123 yards rushing, with Dick Smith and Mileski doing the biggest share of the ground gaining.

Jim Pipkorn, Smith and Mileski accounted for most of the Tigers' tackles, while Joe Shiverski and Dan Lindquist were the standouts on defense for the Broncos.

Wishful Thoughts Come True For Mets' Hodges

By The Associated Press

When it comes to wishful thinking, Gil Hodges must be the best in baseball. For him, they come true.

First, the former great first baseman of the old Brooklyn Dodgers hitched his star to the downtrodden Washington Senators of the American League in his debut as a manager in 1963 and made his wish.

I want to see this club improve every year, he said with overwhelming optimism. And lo and behold, the Senators climbed from last place and 56 victories to ninth and 62, eight and 70, eighth and 71 and sixth and 76.

Then, Hodges returned to New York this season to manage the sickly Mets with their five 10th place finishes and one ninth. Another wish.

I'd like to win 70 games this season, he said, knowing full well the Mets had never won more than 66 and were again a unanimous pick for last place in the National League.

But Friday night, the Mets made it come true, slipping by Philadelphia 3-2 and 5-4 in a two-night doubleheader for their 69th and 70th triumphs. They also held onto ninth place and left open another impossible dream—a seventh place finish.

The Mets climbed within two games of the Phillies and Los Angeles, which tied for seventh by tripping the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4. Houston dropped one game behind the Mets in last place despite a 7-6 triumph over Cincinnati.

In other games, Steve Blass won his eighth consecutive game and seventh shutout with a two-hitter as Pittsburgh stopped the Chicago Cubs 5-0, and Juan Marichal won his 26th, a personal high, with a five-hitter that sent San Francisco by Atlanta 8-1.

The hot Dodgers celebrated the rehiring of Walt Alston for his 16th year as their manager by notching their 13th victory in 17 games.

Willie Davis's sacrifice fly in the sixth inning broke the tie after the Cardinals had climbed back from a 4-1 deficit aided by homers from Lou Brock and rookie Joe Hagie, his first in the majors.

The Astros had to come from behind twice against the Reds. Houston scored two unearned runs in the eighth for a 5-4 lead. The Reds scored twice in the ninth, but the Astros returned with two more of their own on Bob Aspromonte's sacrifice fly and Rusty Staub's hit. Pete Rose got his 200th hit for the Reds.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Miners Notch 22-0 Win Over Emeralds

NEGAUNEE — The Negaunee Miners got back on the winning track after two successive losses by blanking the Manistique Emeralds, 22-0, in a game played here last night.

The Miners now stand at 2-2 in the Great Lakes Conference race and Manistique dropped to 1-3.

After the ball changed hands once the Miners moved 56 yards in 10 plays to the Manistique 14-yard line, mainly on the strong running of David Penrose who carried the ball 25 and 15 yards on successive carries. The Emeralds held on defense at this point but couldn't move the ball offensively and were forced to punt.

Manistique's Bob Males intercepted a pass on the Emerald 41, but again the Emeralds were forced to punt. This time a Negaunee lineman broke through to block the punt attempt and recovered on the Manistique 25.

Penrose made three straight carries to the one yard line before going over right tackle from the one to score. Kurt Wicklund kicked the extra point. Negaunee's scoring drive covered 25 yards in five plays.

After the kickoff, Manistique again punted and Penrose took the ball on the Emerald 35 and returned it to the 21. Two plays later, the Miner quarterback, Norman Gothe, raced 20 yards to paydirt. The kick for extra point was no good and the Miners held a 13-0 lead at halftime.

Negaunee returned the second half kickoff to their own 38 and Penrose carried to the Manistique 46 on the next play. The Emerald defense stiffened and the Miners punted to the six yard line.

On the first play after the punt, Males was tackled in the end zone, giving the Miners a safety and a 15-0 lead.

After Manistique took the ball again, Jim Luma intercepted a Males' pass on the Negaunee 30. Two first downs put the ball on the 44 and on fourth down and ten, Gothe passed to Penrose on a screen pass that covered 27 yards and gave Negaunee a first down on the Manistique 17.

Penrose carried twice to the 7 and after three incomplete passes, Negaunee prepared for what looked like a field goal attempt. Gothe took the snap and passed 7 yards to Wayne Catron in the end zone for the touchdown. Wicklund's PAT attempt was good.

Negaunee picked up 210 yards on the ground and 58 passing to Manistique's 50 yards rushing and 59 through the air. Gothe hit five of 14 passing attempts and Manistique's Kendall Neeson had six for ten. The Miners picked up 15 first downs, 12 rushing, two passing and one by penalty and the Emeralds could only muster seven, three rushing and four passing.

Penrose picked up 157 yards in 26 carries to lead the Miners' overland attack. Dennis Partanen chipped in with 32 yards in 11 attempts. Keith Aldrich racked up 88 yards in six rushing attempts for the Emeralds and Males was on the receiving end of three passes for 36 yards.

Scoring:

Neg. — Penrose — 1 yd. run (Wicklund Kick)

Neg. — Gothe — 20 yd. run (Kick Failed)

Neg. — Males tackled in end zone for safety

Neg. — Catron — 7 yd. pass from Gothe (Wicklund Kick)

Trojans Defeat Hancock, 13-12

CRYSTAL FALLS (AP) — Crystal Falls edged Hancock 13-12 in a Friday football game decided only after the clock had run out. Hancock back Dick Salani set off on a 15-yard touchdown run with eight seconds showing on the scoreboard. His touchdown moved Hancock to within one point of tying Crystal Falls, but the extra-point attempt failed after regulation time had expired.

Packers-Vikings Game Has Thrill Ingredients

By The Associated Press

You take a football field and two groups of players, mix in some running, passing, blocking and tackling, then add a field goal in the final seconds—and you have a Minnesota - Green Bay game.

This was the recipe for excitement whipped up by these two National Football League rivals last year when they split two games, each winning on a field goal with eight seconds remaining.

That last-minute spice might be missing when the two Central Division clubs clash Sunday in Milwaukee, Wis., but all the ingredients are there.

Other courses on the NFL menu Sunday are Cleveland at Dallas, Baltimore at Atlanta, Chicago at Detroit, New York at Philadelphia, Washington at New Orleans, Pittsburgh at Los Angeles and St. Louis at San Francisco.

American Football League gourmets can choose from Houston at San Diego and Oakland at Miami tonight and Buffalo at Cincinnati, Denver at Kansas City and New York vs. Boston at Birmingham, Ala., Sunday.

Minnesota showed surprising offense in smashing Atlanta 47-7 in its opener last Sunday. Joe Kapp hit on 16 of 20 passes for 191 yards and three touchdowns and Clint Jones carried 17 times for 101 yards for the Vikings.

Green Bay got off in its quest for a fourth straight NFL championship by belting Philadelphia 30-12. Donny Anderson rushed for 92 yards, his best effort as a pro, and Elijah Pitts showed he is apparently recovered from a knee injury by running for 45.

Baltimore, 1-0, is expected to go again with quarterback Earl Morrall, who filled in for sore-armed Johnny Unitas last Sunday and led the Colts to a 28-10 triumph over San Francisco. Atlanta got some promising running from rookies Brendan McCarthy and Charlie Bryant last week, but the Falcon defense will have to get over its shell shock.

Cleveland, 1-0, will be counting on the running of Leroy Kelly and the passing of Frank Ryan against Dallas, but the big spark for the Browns might be the memory of that 52-14 thrashing by the Cowboys in last year's Eastern Conference title game.

However, it will take a tight Cleveland defense to halt the Cowboys who opened last week with a 59-13 victory over Detroit as Don Meredith completed 16 of 19 passes for 228 yards and two touchdowns.

Detroit will attempt to come back from the Dallas' trouncing, but the Lions will have their hands full with a Chicago Bear team that was upset 38-28 by Washington in its opener.

Injured quarterback Bill Munson is expected to return to action for Detroit. The Bears once again will gear their attack to Gale Sayers.

New York, 1-0, should be able to hand Philadelphia its second straight defeat, but the Giants might have to be sharper than they were in beating Pittsburgh. Fran Tarkenton again will guide the New York attack. King Hill went all the way at quarterback for the Eagles against Green Bay, but he might be spelled Sunday by John Huarte.

New Orleans, 0-1, will have to get its offense going, or its going could be a long afternoon for the Saints' defense, which will have the task of stopping Sonny Jurgensen who completed 14 of 21 passes for 276 yards and four touchdowns against Chicago.

Quarterback Kent Nix had his problems against New York last week and they should increase Sunday against the Los Angeles defense which made things miserable last Monday for Jim Hart when the Rams won their opener 24-13 against St. Louis.

Hart figures to have things easier when the Cardinals meet San Francisco. The 49ers will be looking to John Brodie to lead them into the victory column. Brodie completed 23 of 42 passes against Baltimore but had three intercepted as the San Francisco offense failed to score.

Presbyterians Back Bonds On Water Purity

The Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian, Manistique, has adopted a statement supporting the clean water and recreation state bonding proposal to be voted in the Nov. 5 state elec- tion.

The resolution adopted by the Presbytery of Mackinac Sept. 10 states: "It is our be- lief that previous damage has been done to our physical en- vironment by our failure to fol- low sound conservation prac- tices in disposal of sewage and industrial wastes, etc.

"Also, on the basis of Chris- tian convictions, rooted in Holy Scripture, we acknowledge that the earth and the heavens be- long ultimately to God, for the benefit of all mankind, for the entirety of human history, and we believe that we are only stewards of the earth's re- sources of this world — so that no generation can claim the right of sole ownership with a concomitant 'right' to despoil, destroy or discard these re- sources at will. . . .

"We give our full endorse- ment to the bond issues that are to be voted on by the public on Nov. 5."

Book Is Memorial For Don Messier

The St. Francis de Sales Parish Library has received the book "Glass, Stones and Crown" by Anne Rockwell as a memorial to the late Donald Messier.

The book, presented by friends of the family, is a story of the first great Gothic-style church in France—the Church of St. Denis—and of its his- tory and architecture. Includ- ed is the story of Abbot Suger, priest of the Church of St. Denis.

Senior Girls To Form Troop

A Senior Girl Scout Troop will be formed Monday night at the home of Mrs. John Wil- son, 527 Cherry St. All girls in grades 10 through 12 are in- vited to attend the meeting even though they have no pre- vious scouting experience. Mrs. Douglas Rose will assist Mrs. Wilson as Troop Leader.

Senior Girl Scouts will study basic scout skills, the patrol system, and camping. They will also assist in community service. As the girls progress in these steps emphasis will be directed to participation in re- gional and national events. In November a meeting is plan- ned in Escanaba with other U. P. Senior Troops entitled "Senior Speakout."

Plan Marine Unit

Mrs. Francis ... Girl Scout Council President, said that the council hopes a Ma- riner Scout Program can be implemented with the help of local yachtmen. In this way girls who have an interest in boating and navigation may work toward perfecting their skills on and in the water.

Training for public service will be available under the "Springboard To Leadership" program which will instruct the girls in serving as assistant Brownie and Junior Girl Scout leaders, camp counselors, first aiders, etc.

Senior scouts will also be encouraged to develop their social aptitudes by sponsoring dances, picnics, parties, ... tenancies, and the like. Boy Scouts and Explorer Post may work with the girls in projects that allow co-ed activities.

Council Is Sponsor

The new Troop will be sponsored by the Manistique Girl Scout Council but any civic or- ganization, service club, church or business organization may take over the sponsorship if they wish. Mrs. Wilson or Mrs. Rose may be contacted by any interested sponsors.

All girls attending the Man- istique Area Schools are invited to attend the Troop forma- tion.

Church Events

Fellowship Will
Senior High Westminster Fel- lowship of the Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian, will hold its opening meeting of the new year at the church Sunday evening at 7. Election of of- ficers will be held.

On October 6, James Fred- erickson, 1967-68 moder- ator will be in charge of the program. The group is issuing an invitation to all interested se- nior high youths to attend.

Presbyterian

There will be a Christian Education meeting at the church at 7:30 Tuesday eve- ning. The meeting is for teach- ers, committee members and interested parents.

Study Class

A study class of ninth graders is beginning at Church of the Redeemer. The class is desig- ned especially for those who wish to prepare for commu- niant membership, but others are also welcome to attend. First regular meeting of the class will be 7 on Monday eve- ning. Pastor William Brauer will be the instructor.

Zion Lutheran

The Couple's Club will meet tonight at 6 p.m. in Augus- tana Hall for a "Family Pan- cake Supper." Hosts and host- esses are Rev. and Mrs. Ingmar Levin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jorgen- son, Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Brand- strom and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Price. All couples and families are welcomed. Couples are asked to bring their own table service.

Hospital

Admitted to the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital on Thursday were Margaret Larson, William Feigel, Roy Nelson, and Ar- thur Rousseau. Discharged were James LaMont, Alice Maschino, Ada Rousseau, Pattie Holm- berg, and Russell LaFleur.

Seek To Solve Snagging Beefs

Rep. Charles Varnum will meet early next week in Mar- quette with Law Enforcement and Fish Division officials of the Conservation Department in response to his request for an investigation of coho salmon snagging complaints.

Varnum said Friday he hoped a meeting could be held in Thompson but that a time and date for the proposed meeting is yet to be determined.

"The State Conservation Dept. seems eager to reach a policy that is fair to all. Perhaps by sitting down and discussing the problem (coho snagging) we can iron out our differences," Varnum commented.

Varnum requested an in- vestigation earlier this week after numerous complaints by coho fishermen who claimed they were being treated unfairly. The fishermen contended that any snagging being done was by accident.

In his earliest comments Varnum said that he could not condone snagging and reaf- firmed that violators should be dealt with firmly. In request- ing a re-examination of Con- servation Dept. policies on snag- ging, Varnum emphasized that determining a fair policy is ul- timately the responsibility of the Conservation Dept.

Knights Honor Donald Messier

A High Mass with the new funeral liturgy was celebra- ted by Msgr. F. M. Scheringer on Friday, Sept. 13, in St. Francis de Sales Church preceding the burial of Donald E. Messier, 42, 625 Park Ave., who died Sept. 9 in Chicago.

Msgr. Scheringer also deliv- ered the eulogy during the 11 a. m. service.

Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus marched in a body to the church and formed an honor guard in the church center aisle. General assem- blies from Manistique, Muni- sing, Bishop Baraga, Iron Mountain, Menominee, Escana- ba, and Marquette were re- presented.

Hearing the funeral mass in the sanctuary were Msgr. Dav- id Speighnati, Ishpeming; Fr. Norbert LaCrosse, Escanaba; Fr. Robert Kennedy, Newberry; Fr. Conrad Dishaw, Rapid River; Fr. William Richards, Ewen; Fr. Emil Beyers, Munising; Fr. James Donnelly, Garden; and Fr. Daniel Zaloga, Manistique.

Serving as active pallbear- ers were William Putvin, Dr. Merle Wehner, Clarence Mc- Namara, Ray Schmidt, Emmett McNamara, William Beaudin, John Hanson, and Dr. Robert Worley.

Former masters of the Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, who attended the funeral from out-of-town included James Galbraith, Alpena; William Kelly, Mt. Pleasant. Active Masters present were Ralph Izzo, Iron Mountain; Frank Schmitt, Lansing; and Clarence McInerney, Detroit.

Funeral directors represent- ing the Funeral Directors As- sociation of Michigan attend- ing in a body included John Skradski, Gladstone; H e n r y Boyle, Donald Crawford, and Arthur Anderson, Escanaba; J. Check Cars On Safety Items

A day-long Safety Check was held Thursday by Michi- gan State Police troopers of the Manistique, Newberry, Marquette, and St. Ignace Posts on U. S. 2 in front of the Man- istique Post. All west-bound motorists were stopped be- tween the hours of 12 noon and 6 p. m.

Five tickets were issued to motorists and a number of warnings on conditions to be corrected were given. Motor- ists ticketed included Wilfred Bruno Johnson, Detroit, no turn signals; Gustaf Gustafson, Manistique, no operator's li- cense and no registered certi- ficate; Vernon Seamon, Mt. Morris, no registered certi- ficate; and Alex Busch, Man- istique, no proof of insurance.

Briefly Told

The hot-lunch menu for Mon- day at Fairview, Doyle, Hiawa- tha, and Central School will be spaghetti with meat sauce, but- tered wax beans, chocolate sur- prise cake, and orange juice.

Ronald Lee Day, Flint, was ticketed by Michigan State Po- lice following an accident on U.S. 2 in Doyle Township on Sept. 18. Day was cited for failure to report an accident and violation of the basic speed law.

Garry Viele, Flint, was tick- eted for no proof of insurance and failure to stop at a stop sign by troopers on Thursday.

Job's Daughters Bethel No. 69 will meet Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. Initia- tion of the Guardian Council will be held.

Conservation officer Leslie Walstrom reports that he sighted a bull moose in the Lakefield area, one and one- half miles south of Seney, last Sunday. The moose, which has also been seen by many tour- ists and residents of the Seney area, was headed north.

Dodge Trucks Recall Issued

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. reported Friday that it has recalled 7,210 Dodge trucks.

The firm said it was calling back 4,200 Dodge truck model M-300 and M-375 chassis for inspection and correction, if necessary, of the routing of the left front brake hose and the torque of the spring U-bolt nuts.

In another campaign, 3,010 Dodge 1968-66 medium duty trucks equipped with power steering and 7,000-pound front axle assemblies were recalled for inspection and possible replacement of the tie rod clamp assembly on the power steering cylinder.

New Fords Have Backseat Driver

DETROIT (AP)—A "backseat driver" may ride up front with you if you buy a 1969 Ford.

Ford Motor Co. announced that stereo music tapes provided with player units in its new cars will include brief safety-driving reminders.

Sandwiched between Henry Mancini and Al Hirt you may hear such as: "Safety belts save lives. Fasten your safety belts and make sure your passengers do the same. It's the IN thing to do, so get IN yours every time you drive."

Or ahead of Peter Nero: "Noticed your rear view mirror lately. Keep your eyes moving. It will satisfy your curiosity and prevent unpleasant surprises. Surprises can be costly."

Semon E. Knudsen, Ford president, said "the motor vehicle operator is the key to safe driving. We hope these recorded reminders help make his driving both safer and more pleasant."

Czech Hierarchy Speaks Up For Non-Red Experts

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's ruling Communists spoke up Friday for admission of non-Communists to management roles despite Soviet demands for strengthening of the party's control in all fields.

"Even though the influence of party organizations and bodies is bound to increase in view of the current situation, it does not mean that expertly qualified people, loyal to socialism, members of other parties and unaffiliated persons will be denied the right to share in the responsibility and the management of social, economic and other processes," the Communist party newspaper Rude Pravo declared.

The Czechoslovaks promised in their Aug. 26 Moscow agreement with the Soviet Union to strengthen the Communist party role, but Rude Pravo warned: "Nothing would be a greater mistake than to understand this commitment as a directive to govern by issuing commands, by substituting (the party) for and bypassing state and other bodies, so typical of conditions before last January."

Admission of non-Communists to management is a potential point of new friction with the Soviet Union, which led a Warsaw Pact invasion of this country one month ago. Many talented engineers, scientists and administrators in Eastern Europe have become political-minded and joined the Communist party because it is the only way to get ahead and earn more salary.

President Ludvik Svoboda and others who had been expected to head for Moscow today for renewed negotiations flew instead for the Czechoslovak industrial fair at Brno.

The news agency CTK said party chief Alexander Dubcek, Premier Oldrich Cernik, Slovak

Admits Stabbing Woman, 91

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Gerald Lagrow Jr., 28, formerly of Cadillac, Friday pleaded guilty in Kent Circuit Court to second degree murder in the July 4, 1967, stabbing death of his landlady, Mrs. Nellie Markham, 91, at her apartment house. He was remanded to jail to await sentencing.

Lagrow told the court he went to see Mrs. Markham who had threatened to send him back to a Virginia prison because he forged one of her checks and "the next thing I knew I stabbed her."

Police said investigation revealed she had been stabbed in the chest, head and back with an ice pick.

Democrats Plan New Voter Drive

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Democrats have launched a campaign to register 500,000 new voters for the November election.

"That goal is necessary if Democrats are to win in Michigan," said James McNeely, deputy state chairman, at a news conference Thursday.

Sen. Philip Hart has been named chairman of a Democratic general campaign committee for the election, with co-chairman to be Secretary of State James Hare, Attorney General Frank Kelley and Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanaugh. State Chairman Sander Levin said one of the features of the registration campaign will be the distribution of bumper stickers and buttons built around the theme: "I give a damn, I'm registered."
